

Does your proposal need to go before HLC? It does if it:

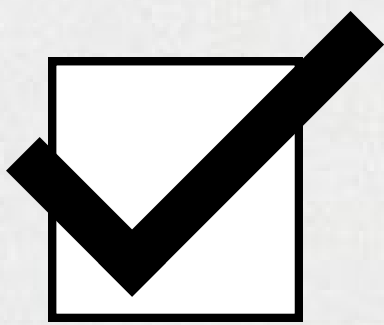

is a new offering at a campus or location is changing more than 25% of a curriculum is a new degree type (BA, MLM, etc.)

is significantly different from existing programs changes the number of credit hours required for a program

If it ticks any of the boxes, then it will need to go before HLC.

For more information, visit:

<https://provost.asu.edu/curriculum-development> or <https://www.hlcommission.org/Accreditation/substantive-change.html>.