Sun Devil Integrity

Engages in learning
- Chooses to engage in learning in college courses to fully understand the content so he/she can be a knowledgeable professional when entering the career world.

Studied diligently
- Studies for exams and assessments diligently and well in advance of exam day. Collaborates with classmates to study for exams by quizzing each other, but completes the exams entirely by himself/herself.

Completes tasks
- Breaks long papers into parts (bibliography, outline, introduction, body, conclusion, and further sub-parts) to complete the task in stages ahead of deadlines.

Encourages others
- Encourages classmates to do their own work and to learn materials so they can be knowledgeable aspiring professionals.

Takes notes
- Diligently takes notes during class and during readings to begin preparing for exams. Studies his/her own notes, making flashcards and study materials, without seeking shortcuts.

Cites sources
- Cites all sources that are referenced, paraphrased, and/or quoted in full or in part, using appropriate source citation (such as APA or MLA format).

Reports cheating
- Reports cheating to the department’s academic integrity officer.

Avoids cheating
- Avoids online or contract cheating websites where offers to complete college coursework, in full or in part, are made.

Works in advance
- Works in advance of assignment deadlines to plan out projects and papers, and create a checklist and a study plan with a daily or weekly schedule.

Respects Honor Code
- Treats instructors and classmates with respect and upholds the ASU Student Honor Code.
