Briefly describe the rationale for disestablishment:

This program has been closed for admissions for 2 plus years. Due to reorganization we have consolidated programs to maximize our recruitment efforts strategically. This program has been approved on an academic plan to be disestablished by ABOR.

Impact on other existing programs:

May include availability of course content for students in other majors who may need it; other.

There is no impact on existing programs.

Impact on current students:

Estimate number of students still enrolled; anticipated date of last graduates; arrangements for continuing students and students in articulated transfer pathways (e.g., MAPP, TAG).

There are currently two students enrolled in the program and they will be graduating in Fall 2014. If a student who was previously enrolled in the program comes back they will have to reapply to a new program and we will allow them to bring in preadmission coursework per Graduate Education Policy. Update March 1, 2015 all students have graduated from this program.

Applications:
