The completed and signed proposal should be submitted by the Dean’s Office to: curriculumplanning@asu.edu.

Before academic units can advertise undergraduate certificates or include them in their offerings as described in the university catalogs, they must be recommended for approval by the Senate Curriculum and Academic Programs Committee and the University Senate, and be approved by the Executive Vice President and Provost of the University.

Definition and minimum requirements:

These are the minimum requirements for approval. Individual undergraduate certificates may have additional requirements.

An undergraduate certificate is a programmatic or linked series of courses from a single field or one that crosses disciplinary boundaries and may be free-standing or affiliated with a degree program. The certificate provides a structured and focused set of courses that can be used to enhance a student's baccalaureate experience or professional development.

An undergraduate certificate program:
- Requires a minimum of 15 semester hours of which at least 12 semester hours must be upper division
- Requires a minimum grade of "C" or better for all upper division courses
- Consists of courses that must directly relate in whole or large part to the purpose of the certificate. Example: Geographic area certificates must include only courses specific to the title of the certificate, other than a non-English language
- Is cross disciplinary; or,
  - Certified by a professional or accredited organization/governmental agency; or,
  - Clearly leads to advanced specialization in a field; or,
  - Is granted to a program that does not currently have a major

1. Overview
A. Provide a brief description of the new certificate.
The Hugh Downs School of Human Communication has designed specific courses that offer students a concentration in the area of civil communication. Students are provided specific training in dialogue based methods of civility, application of critical civil communication skills in public spheres, and civil and productive modes of argumentation. This specialization would provide students with the ability to recognize, competently practice, and facilitate the ever increasing demand for civil discourse in society and workplace organizations. Our foundational courses provide the opportunity for interdisciplinary collaboration and community engagement.

B. This proposed certificate (check one):
- ☐ Is cross disciplinary; or
- ☐ Is certified by a professional or accredited organization/governmental agency; or,
- ☒ Clearly leads to advanced specialization in a field; or,
- ☐ Is granted to a program that does not currently have a major.

C. Why should this be a certificate rather than a concentration or a minor?
It is very specific and would be beneficial for people who work or deal with organizations or for students who are seeking employment in a specific field.

D. Affiliation
If the certificate program is affiliated with a degree program, include a brief statement of how it will complement the program. If it is not affiliated with a degree program, incorporate a statement as to how it will provide an opportunity for a student to gain knowledge or skills not already available at ASU.
In the Hugh Downs School we are seeking to increase the numbers of individuals who can engage in civil communication when there are disagreements or conflicts. We already teach mediation classes to assist those interested in negotiation and conflict and this certificate will add to our ability to assist individuals to become better trained as facilitators.

E. Demand
Explain the need for the new certificate (e.g., market demand, interdisciplinary considerations).
Given the number of mass murders in the US and the heated debates that individuals find themselves in, we have discovered as we have developed an effective way of engaging in civil dialogue. We have been working on the facilitated dialogue process now for the past three years and have perfected it to the point that we've been asked to facilitate for the legislature committees in the state; for civic groups; religious organizations; and in public venues for 'hot' topics. We have brought our facilitation program to NAU; have worked with the Sandra Day O'Connor house and with various community groups including some departments on this campus.

F. Projected enrollment
What are enrollment projections for the first three years?

2. Support and Impact

A. Faculty governance
   Provide a supporting letter from the chair of the academic unit verifying that the proposed certificate has received faculty approval through appropriate governance procedures in the unit and that the unit has the resources to support the certificate as presented in the proposal, without impacting core program resources.

B. Other related programs
   Identify other related ASU programs and outline how the new certificate will complement these existing ASU programs. (If applicable, statements of support from potentially-affected academic unit administrators need to be included with this proposal submission.)
   None

C. Letter(s) of support
   Provide a supporting letter from each college/school dean from which individual courses are taken.

3. Academic Curriculum and Requirements

A. Knowledge, competencies, and skills
   List the knowledge, competencies, and skills (learning outcomes) students should have when they complete this proposed certificate. Examples of program learning outcomes can be found at (http://www.asu.edu/oue/assessment.html).
   1. To understand the necessity for civility in communication.
   2. To understand the value of facilitating civil communication through dialogue in polarized controversies.
   3. To become acquainted with and be able to apply the technique of Civil Dialogue (CD) both as a pedagogical tool and as a research method.
   4. To competently be able to model civility.
   5. To research how civility can be introduced to a variety of contexts.

B. Admissions criteria
   List the admissions criteria for the proposed certificate. If they are identical to the admission criteria for the existing major and degree program under which this certificate will be established, please note that here.
   Same as major/minor for Communication.

C. Curricular structure
   Provide the curricular structure for this certificate. Be specific in listing required courses and specify the total minimum number of hours required for the certificate.

RE: Certificate in Civil Communication

DATE: September 17, 2013

I fully and enthusiastically support the development of an undergraduate certificate in civil communication. This certificate addresses a very real and pressing need in our contemporary world, namely the ability to engage in civil, thoughtful, and productive dialogue about the central issues that we face as a society.

We have faculty who are experts in this area, drawing on their training in rhetoric, performance studies, conflict transformation, and communication theory and practice. We also have students who are very interested in honing their public communication knowledge and skills.

For those reasons and on behalf of the faculty in the Hugh Downs School, I support this certificate.
Hi Jenny,

And Fred has indicated that his unit is supportive, as well.

Thanks!

FYI for the provost. Belle

Belle,

The School of Letters and Sciences supports this program, too. It looks great.

Fred

Hi Belle,

This looks like a great certificate. We have no issues with it.

Best,
Jeff

Hi Fred and Jeff,
The Hugh Downs school has proposed this certificate and we have been asked by the Provost office to let you know that this has been approved by CLAS and that we are seeking your ‘approval’ as well. Some of the students who may choose this may take some of their coursework at your institution. If you could drop me a note that you approve this and also if you have questions please drop me a note with any questions that you have. Best, Belle
