Briefly describe the rationale for disestablishment:

This program is being disestablished on the recommendation of the Concrete Industry Management National Governing Board.

Impact on other existing programs:

May include availability of course content for students in other majors who may need it; other. No impact on other programs.

Impact on current students:

Estimate number of students still enrolled; anticipated date of last graduates; arrangements for continuing students and students in articulated transfer pathways (e.g., MAPP, TAG).

30 Students are currently in enrolled. Last student will graduate in Spring 15 and a direct path and coursework is set for the students in the program.

Applications:

What term should applications close? If this change should be made immediately upon approval, please indicate this. Please note that the program will remain on Degree Search until such a time that no students remain enrolled in the program.

Immediately upon approval (Fall 2014). Students in process of applying will be moved into Construction Management (ESCONMGTBS).

Current applicants:

Describe actions that will be taken regarding admitted students or students who have applied to this program? If current applicants should be moved to a new program, please indicate the plan code of that program.

Students applied will be notified that this program will no longer be available and encouraged to move into our Construction Management ESCONMGTBS program.

Additional information:

Provide any relevant information not required above that will assist in evaluating the proposal.

This template is to be used for proposed disestablishments included on the Academic Plan and for which the unit has received specific written approval from the Provost's office to proceed with internal proposal development and review. This proposal template should be completed and submitted by the Dean's Office to the University Provost's Office [mailto: curriculumplanning@asu.edu]. The disestablishment may not be implemented until the Provost's Office notifies the academic unit that the disestablishment proposal has completed the approval process.
