(NEW GRADUATE INITIATIVES)

PROPOSAL PROCEDURES CHECKLIST

Academic units should adhere to the following procedures when requesting new curricular initiatives (degrees, concentrations or certificates).

- Obtain the required approval from the Office of the Provost to move the initiative forward for internal ASU governance reviews/approvals.
  - Establishment of new curricular initiative requests; degrees, concentrations, or certificates
  - Rename requests; existing degrees, concentrations or certificates
  - Disestablishment requests; existing degrees, concentrations or certificates

- Submit any new courses that will be required for the new curricular program to the Curriculum ChangeMaker online course approval system for review and approval.
  - Additional information can be found at the Provost’s Office Curriculum Development website: Courses link
  - For questions regarding proposing new courses, send an email to: courses@asu.edu

- Prepare the applicable proposal template and operational appendix for the proposed initiative.
  - New degree, concentration and certificate templates (contain proposal template and operational appendix) can be found at the Provost’s Office Curriculum Development website: Academic Programs link

- Obtain letters or memos of support or collaboration. (if applicable)
  - When resources (faculty or courses) from another academic unit will be utilized
  - When other academic units may be impacted by the proposed program request

- Obtain the internal reviews/approvals of the academic unit.
  - Internal faculty governance review committee(s)
  - Academic unit head (e.g. Department Chair or School Director)
  - Academic unit Dean (will submit approved proposal to the curriculumplanning@asu.edu email account for further ASU internal governance reviews (as applicable, University Graduate Council, CAPC and Senate)

Additional Recommendations - All new graduate programs require specific processes and procedures to maintain a successful degree program. Below are items that Graduate Education strongly recommends that academic units establish after the program is approved for implementation.

- Set-up a Graduate Faculty Roster for new PhD Programs – This roster will include the faculty eligible to mentor, co-chair or chair dissertations. For more information, please go to http://graduate.asu.edu/graduate_faculty_initiative

- Establish Satisfactory Academic Progress Policies, Processes and Guidelines – Check within the proposing academic unit and/or college to see if there are existing academic progress policies and processes in place. If none have been established, please go to http://graduate.asu.edu/faculty_staff/policies and scroll down to the academic progress review and remediation processes (for faculty and staff) section to locate the reference tool and samples for establishing these procedures.

- Establish a Graduate Student Handbook for the New Degree Program – Students need to know the specific requirements and milestones they must meet throughout their degree program. A Graduate Student Handbook provided to students when they are admitted to the degree program and published on the website for the new degree gives students this information. Include in the handbook the unit/college satisfactory academic progress policies, current degree program requirements (outlined in the approved proposal) and provide a link to the Graduate Policies and Procedures website. Please go to http://graduate.asu.edu/faculty_staff/policies to access Graduate Policies and Procedures.

Check Box Directions – To place an “X” in the check box, place the cursor on the left-side of the box, right click to open the drop down menu, select Properties, under Default value, select Checked and then select Ok.

PROPOSAL TO ESTABLISH A NEW GRADUATE DEGREE

This proposal template should be completed in full and submitted to the University Provost’s Office [mail to: curriculumplanning@asu.edu]. It must undergo all internal university review and approval steps including those at the unit, college, and university levels. A program may not be implemented until the Provost’s Office notifies the academic unit that the program may be offered.

DEGREE PROGRAM INFORMATION

Master’s Type: MA
(E.g. MS, MA, MAS, PSM, or other)

Proposed title of major: American Studies

1. PURPOSE AND NATURE OF PROGRAM:
   A. Brief program description –

   American Studies is constituted by a multi- and transdisciplinary inquiry into the cultures, social systems, and political thought of the United States. While the array of disciplines contributing to American Studies can span the humanities and social sciences, it typically involves historical, literary, and media studies approaches, and would begin here with primary support from those areas. Our Master’s students will be trained to expand their understanding of the history of American cultures and social conditions, while offering the critical contexts for understanding contemporary America when taken in combination with degrees in Business, Engineering, and Law. A Master’s degree in American Studies provides students with an advanced analytic foundation in American culture and society in all its variety and complexity.

   B. Will concentrations be established under this degree program? ☑ Yes ☐ No
      (Please provide additional concentration information in the operational appendix – number 5A.)

2. PROGRAM NEED - Explain why the university should offer this program (include data and discussion of the target audience and market).

   The American Studies Association (the international organization for American Studies scholars) claims 5,000 individual members and over 2,200 affiliate libraries and institutions. ASU’s faculty are active members at all levels, and have long sought to bring American Studies to ASU as a research degree that can function in combination with professional training, as well as offer a springboard to doctoral training in American Studies, English, History, and related fields. American Studies was a founding major at ASU’s West Campus as a Bachelor of Arts, but it has never been implemented as a graduate degree. ASU’s emphasis on transdisciplinarity makes it the perfect place to develop and cultivate a new kind of American Studies graduate program, one founded in the wealth of its local cultural resources, its global perspective and reach, and in its cutting edge faculty research.
Given the transdisciplinarity of our faculty, an American Studies MA graduate could contribute to multiple career outcomes for our students, including: education (K-university careers); business in an international context; careers in entertainment; public humanities journalism (including in the digital world); communications; civic engagement, political activism, and community relations; museum studies; and the national park service. Undergraduates and graduate students from unrelated majors and schools who require a systematic and in-depth knowledge of American cultural and social contexts for their career trajectories are likely to pursue an MA in American Studies and will be substantially more competitive and prepared as a result of earning it.

3. IMPACT ON OTHER PROGRAMS - Attach any letters of collaboration/support from impacted programs. (see Checklist coversheet)

See Appendix B for letters of support

4. PROJECTED ENROLLMENT - How many new students do you anticipate enrolling in this program each year for the next five years? Please note, The Arizona Board of Regents (ABOR) requires nine masters and six doctoral degrees be awarded every three years. Thus, the projected enrollment numbers must account for this ABOR requirement.

   A. List the knowledge, competencies, and skills students should have attained by graduation from the proposed degree program. (You can find examples of program Learning Outcomes at http://www.asu.edu/oue/assessment.html).

Outcome #1 Graduates of the American Studies M.A. program will be prepared to analyze and explain the unique contributions the United States has made to human civilization.

Outcome #2 Graduates of the American Studies M.A. program will demonstrate competence in synthesizing and exhibiting the content of American culture in historical and contemporary terms.

B. Describe the plans and methods to assess whether students have achieved the knowledge, competencies and skills identified in the Learning Outcomes. (You can find examples of assessment methods at http://www.asu.edu/oue/assessment.html).

Outcome #1 Graduates of the American Studies M.A. program will be prepared to analyze and explain the unique contributions the United States has made to human civilization.

| Measure 1.1 | The student’s successful demonstration of their ability to engage in the systematic study and analysis of American culture and American cultural products, via assignments, projects, and examinations in their 30 hours of course work. |
| Performance Criterion 1.1 | At least 70% of the students' papers and projects that are evaluated will be rated as competent (or above) on the average of the rubric dimensions. The rubric will be based on the student’s ability to compose a coherent and persuasive thesis statement, to use primary source material in making their argument, and to engage with the secondary literature shaping the field of American studies on their given topic. |
| Measure 1.2 | Graduate Alumni Survey |
| Performance Criterion 1.2 | At least 80% of Master’s students surveyed report satisfaction with their training in American Studies research and writing on exit surveys. |

Outcome #2 Graduates of the American Studies M.A. program will demonstrate competence in synthesizing and exhibiting the content of American culture in historical and contemporary terms.

| Measure 2.1 | Master’s students in American Studies have acquired an advanced research skill specific to their thesis or applied project (in languages, quantitative analysis, oral history, textual and media analysis, archival methods, etc.) and have demonstrated mastery of it before their supervisory committee. |
| Performance Criterion 2.1 | In committees evaluating the acceptance of the project or thesis, 80% of the time, the decision by the committee is unanimous to pass. |
| Measure 2.2 | Graduate Alumni Survey |
| Performance Criterion 2.2 | At least 70% of alumni survey respondents report success in admission to graduate programs or success in related professional areas. |

6. ACCREDITATION OR LICENSING REQUIREMENTS (if applicable): Provide the names of the external agencies for accreditation, professional licensing, etc. that guide your curriculum for this program, if any. Describe any requirements for accreditation or licensing.

N/A

7. FACULTY, STAFF, AND RESOURCE REQUIREMENTS:
   A. Faculty
   i. Current Faculty - List the name, rank, highest degree, area of specialization/expertise and estimate of the level of involvement of all current faculty members who will teach in the program.
ii. New Faculty - Describe the new faculty hiring needed during the next three years to sustain the program. List the anticipated hiring schedule and financial sources for supporting the addition of these faculty members.

If the degree grows quickly, particularly online, it will be necessary to hire a Clinical Faculty member to manage the admissions, advising processes and other administrative and instructional tasks. Monies for that position would come from online class revenue.

iii. Administration of the program - Explain how the program will be administered for the purposes of admissions, advising, course offerings, etc. Discuss the available staff support.

The program will be administered by the School of Historical, Philosophical and Religious Studies. The Associate Director of Graduate Studies in SHPRS will chair the admissions committee. Three faculty from Appendix will participate in the American Studies graduate admissions committee.

SHPRS is hiring additional support staff for graduate programs. This person will assist in the administration of American Studies. Advising will be handled by the SHPRS graduate advising staff. Course offerings will be determined by the committee chaired by the SHPRS Associate Director, in collaboration with the Director of SHPRS.

B. Resource requirements needed to launch and sustain the program: Describe any new resources required for this program’s success such as new staff, new facilities, new library resources, new technology resources, etc.

Should the program grow, SHPRS would hire a clinical professor to manage admissions and advising, and offer some classes, if necessary.

8. COURSES:

A. Course Prefix(es): Provide the following information for the proposed graduate program.

   i. Will a new course prefix(es) be required for this degree program?
      - Yes ☐   No ☒

B. New Courses Required for Proposed Degree Program: Provide course prefix, number, title, and credit hours and description for any new courses required for this degree program.

AMS 502 - American Studies Theory and Methods (3)

The course explores some of the major themes in American Studies scholarship by considering American cultural formation and change over the last two centuries. We will pay special attention to debates, themes and problems that have shaped the perception of the United States, domestically and abroad. The principal categories of analysis are race, ethnicity, class, gender, sexuality, and space. The ultimate goal is the production of a major research paper based on primary sources and grounded in the relevant secondary scholarship.
