

Addendum re: Learning Outcomes:

“Lifelong learning for students in this program is gained by the ability to identify, obtain, and practice specific new comprehension after graduation by extensive writing, analysis of readings and synthesizing knowledge. Secondly, we routinely conduct surveys of employers of our graduates and also our graduates for our existing programs. The information from the survey is used in a continuous improvement loop to improve the contents of courses and the curricula.”