INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: CLAS CURRICULUM COMMITTEE AND DEAN DAN BIVONA
FROM: BETH GLESSNER-CALKINS, DEPT OF LANGUAGES & LITERATURES/SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL LETTERS & CULTURES
SUBJECT: DISESTABLISHMENT OF THE SCANDINAVIAN STUDIES CERTIFICATE
DATE: 12/18/2006
CC: ROBERT JOE CUTTER, CHAIR

The Department of Languages & Literatures/School of International Letters and Cultures (pending final ABOR approval of the school) is requesting the disestablishment of the Scandinavian Studies Certificate. Due to the departures of the faculty members (Dr. Ellen Rees in 2003 and Monica Von Eggert in 2004) who used to teach Scandinavian studies, Swedish and Norwegian courses, we are no longer able to offer the courses for the certificate, nor do we intend to fill these positions or teach these courses any time in the near future. We are in the process of also disestablishing the three prefixes associated with Scandinavian studies (SCA, NOR and SWE) through ACRES. These changes may be made effective immediately or no later than Summer 2007. We do not have any students who are attempting to complete the Scandinavian Studies Certificate, so the immediate disestablishment of this certificate will not affect any current students.

If you have any questions or concerns about these requests, please contact me at 5-4674.

Sincerely,

Beth A. Glessner-Calkins
