Implementation information: Degree Search is our official record of the academic catalog. Therefore, all academic programs which are active and have students enrolled are required to be listed on Degree Search. Upon request by the Dean's Office, an academic program can be removed from the undergraduate or graduate application; however, the program will remain in degree search with the notation "This program is no longer accepting applications," until the approved effective date of the disestablishment.

Requested effective date: 2020-21

Briefly describe the rationale for disestablishment:

We now offer a PhD as the terminal degree in music education. We waited to submit this disestablishment proposal until there were no DMA students enrolled in our program. We closed the program several years ago when we established the PhD in Music (Music Education).

Impact on other existing programs:

May include availability of course content for students in other majors who may need it; other.
 No foreseeable impact on other degree programs.

Impact on current students:

Estimate number of students still enrolled; anticipated date of last graduates; arrangements for continuing students and students in articulated transfer pathways (e.g., MAPP, TAG).

There are no students enrolled in this degree program.

Applications:

What term should applications close? If this change should be made immediately upon approval, please indicate this. Please note that the program will remain on Degree Search until such a time that no students remain enrolled in the program.

No students remain in this program. We closed the degree several years ago and we only have PhD students enrolled in music education.

Current applicants:
