In this course you will learn to read, listen, write and speak German. The primary goal of 110 is to help you develop your ability to communicate in German using a variety of tools. You will learn to use German to ask and answer questions; name and describe persons, things, places, and events; deal with certain situations; narrate orally and in writing; write letters and postcards; fill out forms; and comprehend some texts. You will also expand your knowledge of the cultures of the German-speaking countries. We hope you will be willing to contribute to the class discussions what you might already know.

Requested designation: Global Awareness-G
Note: a separate proposal is required for each designation requested

Eligibility:
Permanent numbered courses must have completed the university’s review and approval process.
For the rules governing approval of omnibus courses, contact Phyllis.Lucie@asu.edu or Lauren.Leo@asu.edu.

Submission deadlines dates are as follow:
For Fall 2015 Effective Date: October 9, 2014
For Spring 2016 Effective Date: March 19, 2015

Area(s) proposed course will serve:
A single course may be proposed for more than one core or awareness area. A course may satisfy a core area requirement and more than one awareness area requirements concurrently, but may not satisfy requirements in two core areas simultaneously, even if approved for those areas. With departmental consent, an approved General Studies course may be counted toward both the General Studies requirement and the major program of study.

Checklists for general studies designations:
Complete and attach the appropriate checklist
- Literacy and Critical Inquiry core courses (L)
- Mathematics core courses (MA)
- Computer/statistics/quantitative applications core courses (CS)
- Humanities, Arts and Design core courses (HU)
- Social-Behavioral Sciences core courses (SB)
- Natural Sciences core courses (SO/SG)
- Cultural Diversity in the United States courses (C)
- Global Awareness courses (G)
- Historical Awareness courses (H)

A complete proposal should include:
[ ] Signed General Studies Program Course Proposal Cover Form
[ ] Criteria Checklist for the area
[ ] Course Catalog description
[ ] Course Syllabus
[ ] Copy of Table of Contents from the textbook and list of required readings/books

Respectfully request that proposals are submitted electronically with all files compiled into one PDF. If necessary, a hard copy of the proposal will be accepted.

Arizona State University Criteria Checklist for

GLOBAL AWARENESS [G]

Rationale and Objectives

Human organizations and relationships have evolved from being family and village centered to modern global interdependence. The greatest challenge in the nuclear age is developing and maintaining a global perspective which fosters international cooperation. While the modern world is comprised of politically independent states, people must transcend nationalism and recognize the significant interdependence among peoples of the world. The exposure of students to different cultural systems provides the background of thought necessary to developing a global perspective.

Cultural learning is present in many disciplines. Exposure to perspectives on art, business, engineering, music, and the natural and social sciences that lead to an understanding of the contemporary world supports the view that intercultural interaction has become a daily necessity. The complexity of American society forces people to balance regional and national goals with global concerns. Many of the most serious problems are world issues and require solutions which exhibit mutuality and reciprocity. No longer are hunger, ecology, health care delivery, language planning, information exchanges, economic and social developments, law, technology transfer, philosophy, and the arts solely national concerns; they affect all the people of the world. Survival may be dependent on the ability to generate global solutions to some of the most pressing problems.

The word university, from universitas, implies that knowledge comes from many sources and is not restricted to local, regional, or national perspectives. The Global Awareness Area recognizes the need for an understanding of the values, elements, and social processes of cultures other than the culture of the United States. Learning which recognizes the nature of others cultures and the relationship of America’s cultural system to generic human goals and welfare will help create the multicultural and global perspective necessary for effective interaction in the human community.

Courses which meet the requirement in global awareness are of one or more of the following types: (1) in-depth area studies which are concerned with an examination of culture-specific elements of a region of the world, country, or culture group, (2) the study of contemporary non-English language courses that have a significant cultural component, (3) comparative cultural studies with an emphasis on non-U.S. areas, and (4) in-depth studies of non-U.S. centered cultural interrelationships of global scope such as the global interdependence produced by problems of world ecology, multinational corporations, migration, and the threat of nuclear war.

1. Studies _must_ be composed of subject matter that addresses or leads to an understanding of the contemporary world outside the U.S.

2. The course must match at least one of the following descriptions: (check all which may apply):

   a. In-depth area studies concerned with an examination of culture-specific elements of a region, country or culture group. The area or culture studied must be non-U.S. and the study must contribute to an understanding of the contemporary world.

   b. The course is a language course for a contemporary non-English language, and has a significant cultural component.

   c. The course is a comparative cultural study in which most, i.e., more than half, of the material is devoted to non-U.S. areas.

   d. The course is a study of the cultural significance of a non-U.S.-centered global issue. The course examines the role of its target issue within each culture and the interrelatedness of various global cultures on that issue. It looks at the cultural significance of its issue in various cultures outside the U.S., both examining the issue’s place within each culture and the effects of that issue on world cultures.”

Welcome to German 110! German 110 is a first year intensive course for students with a) no prior knowledge of German, or b) no more than one year of high school German, or c) authorization from the German section. See your instructor if you are in this course for any other reason.

Course Description
In this course you will learn to read, listen, write and speak German. The primary goal of 110 is to help you develop your ability to communicate in German using a variety of tools. You will learn to use German to ask and answer questions; name and describe persons, things, places, and events; deal with certain situations; narrate orally and in writing; write letters and postcards; fill out forms; and comprehend some texts. You will also expand your knowledge of the cultures of the German-speaking countries. We hope you will be willing to contribute to the class discussions what you might already know.

German 110 is a six-credit hour course that meets on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays for 75 minutes in the classroom. How much time you should spend studying outside of class depends on a number of individual factors such as your linguistic aptitude, self-discipline, attitude toward studying, attitude toward learning a foreign language, attitude toward German, etc. You should, on average, plan to spend at least 1-2 hours each day studying German: completing written homework, reviewing, reading, and building your vocabulary. Your instructor can offer some tips on how to study effectively.

We approach teaching and learning foreign languages with the main goal in mind that you will be able to communicate meaningfully with others in German. The emphasis is on the language as a whole and being able to communicate orally and in written form making sense to others. Therefore, unlike language teaching and learning methods you may have previously experienced, you will be taught vocabulary, grammar, culture, pragmatics, etc. together and not separately. You will not be doing any fill in the blanks drill exercises in class and you will not be talking about the form or structure of the language in English in class, rather, you will be engaged into it by stories, role-plays, etc. and you will be actively using the language. This requires a lot of group and partner work and a lot of communicating in the classroom and beyond. There will be no frontal lecture, but rather a student-centered environment. This method has been shown to be the most successful in the field of foreign language learning and teaching (Hampel & Huack, 2004).

Learning Objectives (in alignment with the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines 2012):
Speaking (novice mid-intermediate low): Students will be able to:
- communicate short messages on everyday topics using isolated words and phrases they have encountered in role plays, partner work, and group work.
- ask and respond to simple questions, which have been covered in the course, by interviewing classmates, creating role plays, etc.
- handle successfully a limited number of uncomplicated communicative tasks by creating and performing with the language in social situations role plays, partner work, and group work.
- express personal meaning by combining and recombining what they know and what they hear from their interlocutors in short conversations and statements.

Writing (novice mid-intermediate low): Students will be able to:
- produce lists and notes using words and phrases by writing shopping lists, short ads, etc.
- provide limited information, such as biographic information, on simple forms and documents.
- reproduce practiced material to convey short messages, by writing short journal-like paragraphs.
- exhibit a high degree of accuracy when writing on well-practiced, familiar topics in journal-like entries.
- complete a number of practical writing needs writing short communications, compositions, and requests for information about personal topics, common events, etc.
- create statements and formulate questions recombining learned vocabulary and structures.

Listening (intermediate mid-intermediate high): Students will be able to:
- understand information, with ease and confidence, from paragraph-length speech in personal and social contexts in face-to-face speech as well as in audio and video interviews and clips dealing with various topics.
- derive substantial meaning from some connected speeches in face-to-face speech as well as in audio recordings and video clips.

Reading (intermediate mid-intermediate high): Students will be able to:
- understand fully and with ease short, non-complex texts within appropriate context through short readings.
- understand connected texts featuring description and narration.

Required texts:
Deutsch in Blick, which can be found at http://coerll.utexas.edu/dib/index.php.
You can purchase the book at http://www.lulu.com/shop/zsuzsanna-abrams-et-al/deutsch-im-blick/paperback/product 21070100.html;jsessionid=081433555CD045E62729893CB06D55A6 for $31 or print the chapters as you go through the semester.
The textbook is accompanied by Grimm Grammar http://coerll.utexas.edu/gg/index.html (only available online)

An ASU e-mail account! Make sure you check it on a daily basis. Go to the Computing Commons east of the MU before or on the second day of class to get it set up. If you don't use your ASU account, please make sure you link your personal email to the ASU otherwise you won't receive emails from your instructor.

my.asu.edu (Blackboard). It is recommended that you log in on a daily basis for assignments, additional class information and helpful web sites.

Grading: Your course grade will be based on total work: All German 110 students are evaluated according to the same criteria:

A. Quizzes = 40% You will have several quizzes throughout the semester. The content quizzes will be worth 15%, vocabulary quizzes 15% and listening/reading quizzes 10%. All quizzes will be taken online; you need a webcam (for Technology requirements, please see below).

B. 2 Oral examinations = 20% The best preparation for these exams is regular and active participation. The more you participate in class, the more fluently you will speak.

C. Vocabulary log and homework = 15% This grade includes a weekly vocabulary log (10%) and the homework (5%).

D. 4 Written assignments = 15% These assignments consist of short writings on topics that are discussed and covered and will take place in class.

E. Projects (Participation/Projects) = 10% These projects include your participation in class as well as projects (such as role plays, presentations, etc.) in class as well as outside class.

There is no final exam during the final exam period in GER 110 due to the cumulative nature of all of the tests you take. If you show up late for a test, you will still have to finish the test at the same time as the other students. If you do not show up for an exam without having obtained permission from your instructor in advance of the test, you will not receive any credit for the test. Documented medical or family emergencies, religious holidays, and military service that can be substantiated to the satisfaction of your instructor will be treated as exceptions.

Grading Scale: The letter grades will be broken down according to the following scale:

<table>

Requirements & Policies:

Technology Requirements:

You NEED a laptop computer or a desktop computer, high-speed Internet connection, webcam, and headphones with microphone. The School of International Letters & Cultures requires high-speed Internet connections for this class and preferably physically plugged in to the router (wired and NOT wireless). High-speed Internet connections may be found on any Arizona State University campus or your local library. On the Main campus, Learning Support Services in the Language and Literatures Building have computers available for students enrolled in Language classes (LL061 & LL065.1).

To use Blackboard, YouTube, etc., we highly recommend using Firefox. This browser has been the least problematic in the past with any online class or class assignments.

Attendance & Participation:
DAILY ATTENDANCE and ACTIVE PARTICIPATION in all aspects of the course is expected. Daily preparation, attendance and active participation in class are essential. Regular class attendance is mandatory. If you require accommodations on assignments for a disability, university-sanctioned event, or religious holiday, you must let me know in advance. See the links below for the accommodations the university provides and that this class follows:
  • Religious accommodations: http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd304-04.html
  • University-sanctioned activities: http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd304-02.html
Due to the large amounts of skills' development built into this course, students must be diligent about class attendance. It will be impossible to recover lost class time because such skills are developed for the greater part during time spent in class. When you are absent you are missing your oral practice, your class participation, your preparations for, and a thorough understanding of composition assignments and chapter tests, quizzes as well as valuable information given during the class period. If you are absent, not only will you miss important information but will also earn zeros on any assignments you miss since there is no make-up for homework, quizzes and class participation grades.*

The best policy for you is to strive for perfect attendance whenever possible. If you have to miss class, please let your instructor know as soon as possible. You must arrange with a peer to pick up handouts from class and find out what was covered in the day's lesson. In order to ensure a high quality-learning environment for each level of German, you are allowed to miss four (4) class periods without documentation without repercussions. Each further undocumented absence will result in a lower total course grade by one point (e.g., if you have a total course grade of 90 (A-) and miss five (5) sessions undocumented, your final grade will be 89 (B+)). In order to document absences, you must bring documentation from a doctor's office on official stationery, your clergyman, or your supervisor in the military. The document must state the date and time of your appointment explicitly, as well as the duration of your absence and contact information of the issuing body. In case of serious illness, hospitalization, chronic disease, death in the family, severe mental health problems, among other concerns, your instructor will evaluate the situation on an individual basis.

Punctual class attendance is mandatory as well. Coming late to class is not only a disadvantage for you, but also disturbing for the instructor and classmates. Should you have a very good reason to be late to class (e.g. being in a class across campus before this class), you need to inform the instructor right away. Otherwise, 4 times coming late will count as one absence.

PROJECTS & PARTICIPATION: Participation is very important. Students who prepare thoroughly for class are almost always successful in this course and enjoy it because they stay on top of the material, which allows them to participate actively and fully in class, which strengthens their language skills, which, in turn, leads to higher grades. Participate fully in class (e.g., volunteer frequently), and don't worry too much about making mistakes. Making mistakes is an integral part of learning any language.

ATTENDANCE ≠ PARTICIPATION
* make-up work will be allowed in exceptional situations, such as during documented medical illnesses, observance of religious holidays, military service, family emergencies. Please notify your instructor in writing as soon as possible to arrange for the make-up, and provide written documentation promptly.
You are allowed to miss class because of sanctioned college activities, illness (documented by the health center) or family emergencies. Only for these reasons will an absence count as excused.
Please contact your instructor as soon as possible to make arrangements.

Projects include role-plays, short cultural presentation, creative posters/videos, etc. These projects will allow you to use and apply what you learn in the classroom actively and creatively and, will aid in your enhancing your language abilities.

QUIZZES: You will have five content, five listening and five reading quizzes throughout the semester. These quizzes cover the material we cover in class.

ORAL EXAMINATIONS: You will have two oral examinations throughout the semester. The oral exams will be scheduled with you in the classroom and via Blackboard. You will get the rubric and the guidelines from your instructor. The oral exams reflect all the work you do inside and outside the classroom, including the projects.

VOCABULARY LOG & QUIZZES: You will be given vocabulary each week and will use these vocabulary words in context. You will turn in your logs every two weeks and will have quizzes on these vocabulary words every two weeks.

WRITING ASSIGNMENTS: You will write four writing assignments in class. These writing assignments will be on topics covered in class. You will be given 20 minutes to complete them and you are encouraged to use only vocabulary and grammar structures you learned up to that point.

HOMEWORK: Homework assignments are due on the day scheduled. NO CREDIT IS GIVEN FOR LATE ASSIGNMENTS. Your instructor will announce and collect homework on a daily basis. In addition to this homework, you are required to preview and review on a daily basis the material that is currently discussed in class. You will have to learn the new vocabulary on a daily basis, so that you gain full control over the new German words. This includes correct spelling and knowing the gender and the plural of the nouns, as well as any irregularities of the words. You need to spend at least 60-120 minutes per day outside class in a focused mental state in order to prosper in this class. Students are expected to prepare all assignments:
1) neatly (write legibly or type); illegible answers (sentences, words, letters ...) will be counted as mistakes
2) leave sufficient space for corrections (margins & double-spaced).
3) always indicate the due date of the assignment, the page-number(s) and the exercise-number(s).

ERRORS AND MISTAKES: Errors and mistakes are inevitable. In the classroom, your instructor fosters an atmosphere where mistakes will be treated respectfully. Language learning requires risk taking, and your instructor wants you to feel safe and relaxed, so that you can speak up in front of the class without any anxiety, even if you are not certain if your contribution is 100% correct.
Please do not hesitate to contact your instructor, if there is anything going on in the classroom that prevents you to speak up in class.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES & EXTRA CREDIT: Throughout the semester, a number of cultural activities and projects will take place. Your participation is strongly encouraged! Your instructor will provide you with details at a later date. You will be allowed up to TWO EXTRA CREDIT opportunities (attending ASU German Club events) throughout the semester, which will replace two of your lowest homework grades at the end of the semester. Each two attended events = 1 extra credit.

CELL PHONES/I-PHONES/LAPTOPS: Unless it is a dire emergency, you are to turn-off your cell phones/I-phones/Laptops before the beginning of class. Penalties for having any of these devices on during class will range from a simple warning the first time, to affecting the grade that you will receive at the end of the semester (such as the difference between a 'B' and a 'B+'). If there is an emergency, just let your instructor know before class. If you receive that phone call during class time, simply get up and walk outside to take the call. Otherwise, keep your phone turned-off for the 50 minutes we are in class.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT: Students are expected to act in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct. For detailed information about the Student Code of Conduct and Student Disciplinary Procedures, please refer to: http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm104-01.html

ACADEMIC HONESTY: Academic honesty is expected of all students in all examinations, papers, laboratory work, academic transactions and records. The possible sanctions include, but are not limited to, appropriate grade penalties, course failure (indicated on the transcript as a grade of E), course failure due to academic dishonesty (indicated on the transcript as a grade of XE), loss of registration privileges, disqualification and dismissal. For more information, see http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS: Qualified students with disabilities who will require disability accommodations in this class are encouraged to make their requests to me at the beginning of the semester either during office hours or by appointment. Note: Prior to receiving disability accommodations, verification of eligibility from the Disability Resource Center (DRC) is required. Disability information is confidential. Establishing Eligibility for Disability Accommodations: Students who feel they will need disability accommodations in this class but have not registered with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) should contact DRC immediately. Their office is located on the first floor of the Matthews Center Building. DRC staff can also be reached at: 480-965-1234 (V), 480-965-9000 (TTY). For additional information, visit: www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc. Their hours are 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday. If you have any questions, please contact P.F. Lengel or Jenny Smith at 965-6506.

AUDIT POLICY: Students auditing the course will meet one on one with the instructor to agree upon the grading criteria. Audit students must choose two of the following grading categories and complete a total score of 70% or higher to earn a successful audit for a passing grade "X". In order to audit, you have to make this agreement by the second week of classes.

☐ Projects 50% X 70 - 100%
☐ Oral Exams 50% W 0 - 69%
☐ Written Assignments 50% ☐ Quizzes 50%

I agree that my audit grade is based on the two categories check-marked above:

Einführung

Deutsch im Blick is an online, non-traditional language learning program for beginning and early intermediate students of German. It is quite different from your traditional language textbooks, so it might take some getting used to. However, you’ll enjoy learning German as long as you like to play with language, explore how vocabulary and grammar work together to create meaning, and are curious about the cultures of the German-speaking countries. The main premise of Deutsch im Blick is that learning a foreign language should focus on learning language in use. Thus, all activities are guided by real-life, plausible language situations: How would native and non-native speakers use the vocabulary, grammar and sociolinguistic rules in everyday contexts to make sense of what others tell them and to make meaning themselves?

Deutsch im Blick and grimm grammar
There are two components to this online program: the video-based learning materials online Deutsch im Blick and the zany, irreverent exploration of German. Your textbook introduces you to life in the German-speaking countries, with the assistance of several native speakers of German and students from the University of Texas:

The Germans & The Swiss:
Berna, Eva, Harald, Jan and Peter,

The American students:
Adan, Erin, Hassan, Sara and Sophia

Through their experiences and voices, you will get to know life in Germany and the US, and will learn how to use German the way native- and non-natives speakers use it in everyday, real-life conversations. Through their interviews they share with you how they talk about themselves, their interests, school and free time, friends and family, and in general, how to have fun with the German language (yes, it is possible!).

Before you begin working with each chapter, you should watch the introductory video to get an idea about the chapter’s contents. Then to learn the material of the chapter, you will:

1. work with the interviews with the native and non-native speakers,
2. develop your vocabulary,
3. learn to understand vocabulary in cultural situations presented in Sprache im Kontext videos,
4. learn how to use the structures presented in to talk about your own life,
5. practice pronunciation,
6. complete WebQuests that take you to the German-speaking countries (at least virtually), and
7. explore cultural practices via interactive polls.

Deutsch im Blick emphasizes the building of vocabulary as a primary pillar of the ability to communicate. In the experience of many students, knowing grammar (a component of language emphasized in most other textbooks) is not sufficient to interact with other people. The idea for this book developed from the experiences of several students on study abroad programs. These students had learned German grammar, but had not emphasized vocabulary enough to communicate successfully.

Deutsch im Blick also recycles lexical and grammatical information through the different chapters to help reinforce meaningful semantic, structural and cultural connections. Grammatical accuracy is important. There is a life and death difference between saying “I could kill that frustrating person!” and “I have killed that frustrating person!” (the life and death difference: death penalty v. not, in Texas). Yet, as you will see, there are no simple grammar exercises in the workbook asking learners to manipulate pronouns or verb tenses in 6-10 isolated sentences. Instead, grammatical sophistication and accuracy are fostered through listening, speaking, reading and writing tasks that reflect how grammatical structures work — along with relevant vocabulary — in real language use contexts. If the user looks carefully, many exercises focus on how to use grammar for effective meaningful communication. To recap, in order to help learners prepare for real-life interactions in German, Deutsch im Blick develops:
vocabulary as the key component of language at beginning levels of instruction. Without vocabulary, grammar has no meaning. Each chapter provides suggestions for learning important lexical items in the Core vocabulary list at the beginning of each chapter. There is also an expanded list at the end of each chapter to provide an additional resource. Each chapter also offers a number of exercises that help practice, reinforce and illustrate the real-life uses of German words, phrases, collocations (how words are used together) and idiomatic expressions.

- listening skills with the help of extensive video clips (both guided interviews and authentic footage);
- writing skills that focus on fun, interpersonal and academic genres our college-age learner population needs;
- reading skills that help learners understand a variety of types of texts they would encounter in a study abroad situation and in later academic work if they pursue a major in German. These activities focus on building vocabulary, developing cultural literacy and preparing for independent reading beyond the classroom;
- cultural analytic skills through regular authentic materials and tasks – through the listening, reading, writing and speaking tasks – that foster reflection, comparison and articulation of findings. There are web-quests that guide students to immersion in cultural and language topics and lots of music that offer a fun portal to German youth-culture(s). Culture, in this program, is understood as both literary and historical knowledge (Culture) as well as everyday concepts in the workings of a society (culture). Language is very much seen as integrally embedded and reflective of culture.

Authentic texts
You will work intensively with authentic materials throughout the program. It is by design that we provide you with products and perspectives which were produced for a German-speaking audience. We made sure that the tasks we built around the texts are appropriate for your level of German learning throughout the chapters. You will find that from the very beginning you can derive understanding from a variety of materials.

Culture
It is our understanding that culture and language are fundamentally intertwined and that culture is not a separate skill set to acquire, but rather the foundation of all language use. We also believe that there is no one “target” culture, but rather that communities have a variety of subcultures, with different practices and preferences. Therefore, we expect that the process of “learning German” involves discovery about ourselves, our own cultures and assumptions as well. Throughout the chapters you will find multiple opportunities to reflect on your own perspectives as you strive to understand the viewpoints reflected in the Austrian, German and Swiss examples you encounter.

Deutsch im Blick: http://www.coerll.utexas.edu/dib/ is the grammar component of this learning program. Most fortunately, several Grimm fairy tale characters volunteered to teach you all kinds of exciting and intricate things about German grammar.

Snow White and the seven dwarfs - among many other characters - tirelessly present grammatical concepts from adjectives (very exciting!) to verbs (to fascinate you). They model these concepts through – what they consider – witty dialogs and poignant narratives, which are supported by audio-files and illustrations that help make each grammar point a bit more memorable (the audio-recordings were done with the help of over 30 guest artists).

Each part of speech (e.g., adjectives, adverbs, nouns, verbs) is introduced in an overview, which provides a portal to more detailed information about relevant sub-topics (e.g., articles, the past tense of regular verbs, etc.). The grammar descriptions are provided in English and German to foster in-depth understanding and autonomous work by beginning language learners. The fill-in-the-blank, slash-sentence, multiple-choice and other types of self-correcting exercises that follow each grammar point also aim to promote understanding grammar in plausible communicative contexts (i.e., what someone might actually say in real life).

Aktivität 3. Bernas typischer Tag

What is a typical day like for Berna? View her „Ein typischer Tag” video and number her daily routines in the order in which she describes them. How is Berna’s typical day different from Erin’s?

- Dann muss ich erst mal essen, weil ich meistens sehr ausgehungert (starved) bin.
- Wenn die Kurse fertig (finished) sind, komme ich dann nach Hause.
- Dann trinke ich eine Tasse Kaffee, ich dusche mich, mache mich fertig.
- Vormittags bin ich damit beschäftigt zu unterrichten, vorbereiten, Tests korrigieren...
- Dann lese ich wieder weiter für den nächsten Tag.
- Ich stehe morgens relativ früh auf, so um sieben.
- Dann gehe ich zur Universität.

Grimm Grammar

At home please read the following grammar point on the Grimm Grammar website.

Separable prefix verbs - present tense

(Please also complete the exercises at the end.)

Some examples are verbs with an, auf, aus, ein, mit, nach, etc.

The prefix is separated from the stem and moves to the end of the clause. sentence:

- einkauen (shop)
- ich kaufe ein
- du kaufst ein
- er/sie/es kauft ein
- wir kaufen ein
- ihr kauft ein
- sie/Sie kaufen ein

Telling Time (review)
Kapitel 3

Aktivität 4. Und was macht Hassan an einem typischen Tag?
Finally, watch as Hassan describes a typical day in his life and answer the following questions based on his responses.

1. Wann steht Hassan morgens auf?
2. Was macht er am Morgen?
3. Wie lange arbeitet er?
4. Was macht er am Nachmittag?
5. Warum ist Hassan momentan nicht an der Universität?

Aktivität 5. Der Tagesablauf
Below are some common activities for each part of the day (i.e., mornings, afternoons, evenings, nights). What other common activities can you think of to add to the list? Circle the ones that describe your daily routine.

morgens
- aufwachen
- aufstehen
- duschen
- anziehen
- die Zähne putzen
- die Haare bürsten
- die Haare kämmen
- rasieren
- frühstücken

vormittags

mittags
- zur Universität gehen
- in die Kurse gehen/zum Unterricht gehen
- zu Mittag essen
- Besorgungen machen/etwas erledigen
- mit Freunden Kaffee trinken gehen/ausgehen
- nach Hause gehen

nachmittags

abends/nachts
- Hausaufgaben machen
- sich entspannen
- zu Abend essen
- aufstehen
- ins Bett gehen

Ich rasiere mich
= I shave [myself].

Ich entspanne mich
= I relax.

You will learn much more about reflexive verbs next semester in Chapter 7.
Aktivität 14. Ein typisch deutsches Frühstück

A. Take a good look at the image below. How many of the items can you identify and spell correctly in German? Write down as many items (with the correct article) as you can in 2 minutes — then compare your results with the rest of the class.

Nota Bene: There may be regional differences in breakfast preferences, as well as personal ones. Marmorkuchen mit Coca-Cola, anyone? Some of the terms also differ: Semmel (rolls) in Bavaria and Austria, Brötchen in the northern parts of Germany.

B. Frage zur Diskussion
How does the “typical” German breakfast differ from the “typical” American breakfast? Discuss with your classmates what everyone eats and explore whether there is such a thing as “typical” American breakfast food.
Kapitel 3

Aktivität 20. Sprache im Kontext: Andrew und Austin: Döner kaufen

Watch the video „Andrew/Austin: Döner kaufen“ several times and answer as many of these questions as you can.

1. Welche Garnierungen bestellen (to order) die Studenten?
   Andrew bestellt einen Döner mit ______________________.
   Austin bestellt einen Döner mit ______________________.

2. Bezahlen sie zusammen (together) oder getrennt (separate)? ______________________.

3. Wie oft essen sie Döner?
   Andrew sagt: ______________________
   Austin sagt: ______________________

Another Döner topping frequently served at Dönerbuden is a spicy red pepper sauce. When ordering at a Dönerbude which serves this sauce, you’ll be asked if you’d like yours „mit scharf“ (with heat) or „ohne scharf“ (without heat).

You can try Döner with a variety of toppings (including this spicy red sauce) right here in Austin (where this book has its origin) at a Döner stand called "Kebabulous". Check out their location and opening hours on the "Kebabulous" website http://www.austinkebab.com.

Is there one in your town?

Aktivität 21. Das Mittagessen nicht verpassen!

If you’re thinking about skipping lunch today, you might want to think again. The story below – „Die Geschichte vom Suppen-Kaspar“ – is a cautionary tale, one of ten stories in Heinrich Hoffmann’s famous Struwwelpeter (1845) collection, which chronicles the horrifying consequences of children’s mischief.

A. Vor dem Lesen

Look at the illustrations accompanying the story. What do they tell you about the main character and what happens to him?

B. Nach dem Lesen – Fragen zur Diskussion

1. Summarize the story in your own words: who does what when, and what happens to him?
2. This is clearly a story with a moral. What is it?
3. What do you think the target age-group is? What do you base your response on?
4. How could you tweak the story for a contemporary child audience?
war: was
kerneingesund: as fit as a fiddle
a ein dicker Bub: a plump boy
kugelrund: round as a ball
hatte: had
Backen: cheeks
aß: ate
fing er an zu schrei’n: he began to shout eß’: esse

sieh nur her!: just see here!
schon: already
magerer: thinner
wieder: again

o weh und ach!: oh, pain and sorrow!
dünn und schwach: thin and weak
kam herein: came in

endlich: finally ein Fädchen: a little thread
wog: weighed
ein halbes Lot: equivalent to 7.5 grams
tot: dead

Die Geschichte vom Suppen-Kaspar

Der Kaspar, der war kornesnicht,
Ein dicker Bub und kugelrund.
Er hatte Backen rot und frucht;
Die Suppe aß er hübsch bei Tisch.
Doch einmal fing er an zu schrei’n:
„Ich esse keine Suppe! Nein!
Ich esse meine Suppe nicht!
Nein, meine Suppe eß ich nicht!“

Am nächsten Tag – ja sieh nur her!
Da war er schon viel magerer.
Da fing er wieder an zu schrei’n:
„Ich esse keine Suppe! Nein!
Ich esse meine Suppe nicht!
Nein, meine Suppe eß ich nicht!“

Am dritten Tag, o weh und ach!
Wie ist der Kaspar dünn und schwach!
Doch als die Suppe kam herein,
Gleich fing er wieder an zu schrei’n:
„Ich esse keine Suppe! Nein!
Ich esse meine Suppe nicht!
Nein, meine Suppe eß ich nicht!“

Am vierten Tage endlich gar
Der Kaspar wie ein Fädchen war.
Er wog vielleicht ein halbes Lot –
Und war am fünften Tage tot.

Aktivität 22. Was essen Sie nicht?

Ich esse’s nicht! In „Die Geschichte vom Suppen-Kaspar“, Kaspar’s stubborn refusal to eat soup is highlighted in the story’s refrain: „Ich esse keine Suppe! Nein! Ich esse meine Suppe nicht! Nein, meine Suppe eß ich nicht!“ Is there something you would refuse to eat if it were served to you? Personalize the refrain by adding your own despised food item. (Don’t forget to use the Akkusativ case!)

„Ich esse kein _______! Nein!
Ich esse mein _______ nicht!
Nein, mein _______ eß ich nicht!“
Aktivität 28. Das Abendbrot – Die wichtigste Familienmahlzeit Deutschlands
The following article appeared in the Berliner Zeitung on March 26, 2008.

discussing dinner times in German-speaking cultures

A. Vor dem Lesen

1. Look at the title ("Allein am Frühstückstisch") and subheading ("Umfrage zu Essverhalten") of the passage below. Based on these clues, what do you think the focus of the passage is?

Allein am Frühstückstisch
Umfrage zu Essverhalten

AFP

in jeder dritten Familie: in every third family Kinder: children
während der Woche: during the week
gemeinsam: together
noch seltener: even more seldom einer Umfrage nach: according to a survey dritt vierte Familie: every fourth family
nimmt ein: to take in (i.e., food) dagegen: in contrast
gab an: indicated
mindestens: at least am häufigsten: most frequently drei Viertel: three-fourths Wert darauf legen: to make a point of doing aufessen: to eat up müssen: to have to

B. Fragen zur Diskussion

From what you just learned about family Essverhalten (eating practices) in Germany, and based on your own experience, would you say that they are the same in the US? In your family? For example, is dinner the most important meal for your family? Lunch? Breakfast? Why/why not? Before discussing take a few notes, that are helpful to bring your points across.

Aktivität 37. Der erste Schultag
You may be wondering just what exactly the Lössungswort and the image of the item on the previous page is. In Germany, elementary school children receive one of these on the first day of school (see the image below, the girl is holding a Schultüte). They are filled with different kinds of Süßigkeiten and Schulsachen for the children to enjoy. The tradition dates back to the early 19th century!
Now, flash forward to today; your German friend is starting his/her first day at your university, and you want to welcome him/her with a university-level version of the classic Schultüte – eine Unitüte! What do you put in your German friend’s Unitüte? Include at least 6-8 items.

Für die Unitüte kaufe ich ... (+ Akk.)

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

__________________________

Now draw a picture of this Unitüte with all the goodies inside. Use the space below, and label the items in the Tüte (using the nominative case)!

Studi-Tipp: You may use your Unitüte as a Vocabbox. Write all relevant vocab on slips of paper (English on the front, German on the back) and put them in your Unitüte. Each day test yourself. Whenever you know a card, you can leave it out - once your Unitüte is empty restock it with new words. But dont forget to reward yourself with some Milka, Kinderschokolade or Gummibärchen.
Kapitel 9

a. German is the relatedness to the country.
b. German is not to eat or laugh.
c. German is the language that forms your thinking.
d. German cars are low quality.
e. Germans are disciplined.
f. Germans criticize others.

Warum finden diese Leute es schwer, die Frage „Was ist typisch deutsch?“ zu beantworten?

Welche Eigenschaften finden Sie auch „typisch amerikanisch“?

Aktivität 2. Ihre Meinung: Was ist deutsch?

A. Ideen sammeln

Meiner Meinung nach ...
B. Weitere Adjektive/Begriffe
Schauen Sie sich die Liste (das Selbstbild der Deutschen) noch einmal an. Fehlen noch andere Wörter und Ausdrücke, die Sie benutzen würden, um die Deutschen zu beschreiben? Was Sie vielleicht von Verwandten, aus Filmen, der Literatur oder Kultur über Deutschland oder die Deutschen gelernt haben?

weitere Wörter & Ausdrücke zum Deutschsein

Aktivität 3. Sind Sie politisch engagiert?

Politis in Germany and US

A. Ein Wortigel
Was ist Politik? Was bedeutet das Wort für Sie? Bevor wir über Politik sprechen, versuchen Sie das Wort Politik zu definieren. Welche Wörter beziehungsweise Ausdrücke und Ideen assoziieren Sie mit diesem Begriff?

wählen

Politik
Aktivität 10. Die deutschen Parteien
Sie haben in Saras Interview die Abkürzungen der deutschen Parteien namen gehört. Wie aber lauten die vollen Namen? Und was vertreten die Parteien?
Lesen Sie folgenden Text über die Parteien und beantworten Sie danach die Fragen.

A. Vor dem Lesen
In den USA gibt es zwei große Parteien: die Demokratische Partei (eher liberal und progressiv) und die Republikanische Partei (eher konservativ). Die inoffizielle Farbe der Demokraten ist blau, die Farbe der Republikaner – auch inoffiziell – ist rot. Die deutschen politischen Parteien haben ebenso ihre eigenen Farben.
Können Sie erraten (guess), welche Farben welche Ideologien symbolisieren?
schwarz (auch orange)      eine Partei, die sich für die Natur (Umwelt) interessiert rot (auch bunt)            eine eher liberale Partei, links von der Mitte geil (und blau)            eine konservative Partei grün                       eine Partei, die die Nazizeit heraufbeschwört braun                      eine liberale Partei, die finanziell etwas konservativer ist

Überfliegen (scan) Sie nun den Text auf den nächsten Seiten und finden Sie diese Farben. Welche Schlüsselwörter (und Konzepte) werden in den sieben kleinen Texten mit diesen Farben assoziiert?
Unterstreichen Sie diese Schlüsselwörter, bevor Sie den Text genauer lesen!

B. Beim Lesen
Beantworten Sie die folgenden Aufgaben, während Sie den Text genauer bearbeiten.

1. Ordnen Sie die politischen Parteien von links (liberal) nach rechts (konservativ) ein.

liberal       konservativ

2. Welche bekannten Namen assoziiert man mit den einzelnen Parteien?

3. Welche Themen oder Fragen sind für die einzelnen Parteien wichtig?
Ein buntes Parteienspektrum
Das politische System Deutschlands

Schwarz, Rot und Gelb hieß lange Zeit die politische Farbenlehre in Deutschland. Anfang der 80er Jahre kam Grün hinzu, später auch noch Dunkelrot - um in der Logik der Farben zu bleiben. Und das Spektrum wächst weiter.

Von Konrad Adenauer über Helmut Kohl bis Angela Merkel

Rot und sozialdemokratisch
Nach dem Krieg belasteten ideologische Streitigkeiten die Partei. In ihrem "Godesberger Programm" beschloss die SPD im Jahr 1959, sich inhaltlich und ideologisch von einer sozialistischen Arbeiterpartei zu einer sozialdemokratischen - und damit für mehr Bürger wählbaren - Volkspartei zu wandeln.

Grün - mehr als nur ökologisch
Kapitel 9

Gelb steht für liberal
Die Freie Demokratische Partei (FDP), die im Farbenspektrum traditionell gelb erscheint, hat ihre Position als einziges Zünglein an der Waage zwischen den Unionsparteien und den Sozialdemokraten verloren. Die FDP war Juniorpartner fast jeder Bundesregierung, sofern nicht die schwarz-rot oder rot-grün war.

Die Partei sieht sich in der Tradition des Liberalismus in Deutschland und lehnt staatliche Überregulierung ab. Die FDP vertritt oft die Interessen kleiner und mittlerer Unternehmen und wird gerne auch als „Partei der Besserverdienenden“ bezeichnet.

Seit 2009 stellt die FDP gemeinsam mit der CDU/CSU die deutsche Bundesregierung. Bei der Landtagswahl in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern im September 2011 kam die Partei allerdings nur noch auf 2,8 Prozent der Stimmen; eine ähnlich große Niederlage erlebte die FDP im gleichen Monat auch bei der Berlin-Wahl: Mit einem Verlust von knapp 6 Prozent der Stimmen ist sie nicht mehr im Berliner Abgeordnetenhaus vertreten. Dafür sorgte ein Neuling in der deutschen Parteienlandschaft für eine politische Sensation.

Erst entern, dann ändern: Die Piratenpartei
Denn die 2006 gegründeten Piraten zogen im September 2011 zum ersten Mal in ein deutsches Landesparlament ein: Während die FDP in Berlin auf nur 1,8 Prozent kam, erreichten die unter einem Orange-bunten Logo segelnden Piraten auf Anhieb 8,9 Prozent.

Fast schon traditionelles Hauptthema der jungen Piratenpartei ist das Internet. Die Piraten fordern einen Freizugang zum Internet und wollen das Online-Kopierschutz entschärfen: Jeder soll freien Zugang zu allen Informationen haben, die im Internet verfügbar sind.

Außerdem setzen sich die Piraten gegen das Speichern persönlicher Daten durch staatliche Behörden ein. Angesporn durch den Berliner Erfolg peilen die Polit-Neulinge in Orange inzwischen bundespolitische Mitwirkung an.

Rot-Rot, für viele SPD-Mitglieder noch ein rotes Tuch
Rechtsextreme in der deutschen Parteienlandschaft

C. Jetzt sind Sie dran!
Welche politischen Parteien gibt es in Ihrem Land? Welche politischen Einstellungen haben Sie? Verwenden Sie die Wörter und Sprache vom Text „Ein buntes Parteienspektrum“. Mit welchen deutschen Parteien könnte man Ihre Parteien vergleichen?

| die Grüne Partei – die Grünen | die Libertäre Partei – die Libertarier |
