Requested designation: Historical Awareness-H
Note- a separate proposal is required for each designation requested

Eligibility:
Permanent numbered courses must have completed the university’s review and approval process.
For the rules governing approval of omnibus courses, contact Phyllis.Lucie@asu.edu or Lauren.Leo@asu.edu.

Submission deadlines dates are as follow:
For Fall 2015 Effective Date: October 9, 2014
For Spring 2016 Effective Date: March 19, 2015

Area(s) proposed course will serve:
A single course may be proposed for more than one core or awareness area. A course may satisfy a core area requirement and more than one awareness area requirements concurrently, but may not satisfy requirements in two core areas simultaneously, even if approved for those areas. With departmental consent, an approved General Studies course may be counted toward both the General Studies requirement and the major program of study.

Checklists for general studies designations:
Complete and attach the appropriate checklist
- Literacy and Critical Inquiry core courses (L)
- Mathematics core courses (MA)
- Computer/statistics/quantitative applications core courses (CS)
- Humanities, Arts and Design core courses (HU)
- Social-Behavioral Sciences core courses (SB)
- Natural Sciences core courses (SO/SG)
- Cultural Diversity in the United States courses (C)
- Global Awareness courses (G)
- Historical Awareness courses (H)

A complete proposal should include:
☒ Signed General Studies Program Course Proposal Cover Form
☒ Criteria Checklist for the area
☒ Course Catalog description
☒ Course Syllabus
☒ Copy of Table of Contents from the textbook and list of required readings/books

Respectfully request that proposals are submitted electronically with all files compiled into one PDF. If necessary, a hard copy of the proposal will be accepted.

Rationale and Objectives

Recent trends in higher education have called for the creation and development of historical consciousness in undergraduates now and in the future. From one perspective, historical awareness is a valuable aid in the analysis of present-day problems because historical forces and traditions have created modern life and lie just beneath its surface. From a second perspective, the historical past is an indispensable source of identity and of values, which facilitate social harmony and cooperative effort. Along with this observation, it should be noted that historical study can produce intercultural understanding by tracing cultural differences to their origins in the past. A third perspective on the need for historical awareness is that knowledge of history helps us to learn from the past to make better, more well-informed decisions in the present and the future.

The requirement of a course that is historical in method and content presumes that "history" designates a sequence of past events or a narrative whose intent or effect is to represent both the relationship between events and change over time. The requirement also presumes that these are human events and that history includes all that has been felt, thought, imagined, said, and done by human beings. The opportunities for nurturing historical consciousness are nearly unlimited. History is present in the languages, art, music, literatures, philosophy, religion, and the natural sciences, as well as in the social science traditionally called History.

ASU--[H] CRITERIA

The Historical Awareness [H] course must meet the following criteria:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
<th>Identify Documentation Submitted</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>1. History is a major focus of the course.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>

<td>2. The course examines and explains human development as a sequence of events influenced by a variety of factors.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>3. There is a disciplined systematic examination of human institutions as they change over time.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>4. The course examines the relationship among events, ideas, and artifacts and the broad social, political and economic context.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The following are not acceptable:

- Courses in which there is only chronological organization.
- Courses which are exclusively the history of a field of study or of a field of artistic or professional endeavor.
- Courses whose subject areas merely occurred in the past.

</table>
| 1. | Criterion 1: History is a major focus of the course. To learn about Judaism, is to learn not only the religious and cultural aspects, but also the 2,500-year history, as the elements are intertwined. | C-1
Weeks 8-14 include discussion of the history of the foundational writings and important movements and historical periods of Judaism. |
| 2. | Criterion 2: The course examines and explains human development as a sequence of events influenced by a variety of factors. By exploring the history of one group - the Jewish people - the course demonstrates how religion functions as a cultural institution that changes over time in a particular historical context. | C-2
Weeks 2; 4; 7; 8-14; 16 include history, how and why certain institutional elements have changed over time. |
| 3. | Criterion 3: There is a disciplined systematic examination of human institutions as they change over time. Judaism is a way of life that is practices in multiple social settings. The social institutions examined in this course include: the family, the synagogue, the court, the school, and diverse voluntary associations. The course pays attention to the rituals of life cycle events celebrated by Judaism from birth to death and account for their development over time. | C-3
Weeks 2-7; 14 address the various practices and institutions of Judaism, and how they have changed over time, and are still changing. |
| 4. | Criterion 4: The course examines the relationships among events, ideas and artifacts and the broad social, political, and economic context.
The course explains the development of Jewish religious practices, rituals, and beliefs all of which responded to changes in social, economic, and political status of the Jews. Special attention is given to the role of jurists, philosophers, and mystics as well as to the interplay between religious and secular dimensions of Jewish life. |

Course Description
This course is a general survey of Jewish beliefs, customs, rituals, and classic texts surveyed in a historical context, from antiquity to the present. The course presupposes no background in Judaism, but it does take for granted that the students have inherent interest in the subject matter and good academic work habits.

Prerequisites
ENG 101, 105 or 107

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Broadly describe the contributions of Judaism and Jews to western civilization, global history, and diversity.
- Compare and contrast elements of the various forms of Judaism.
- Identify the foundational texts of the Jewish literary tradition, and describe their significance.

Course Policies
- Written projects will be take-home essays, requiring independent research, reading, and evaluation of information presented in class and from the recommended texts.
- Class participation demonstrating that the student has read the material, is interested in it, and has good questions and ideas, is mandatory. Class discussion will be an important factor in evaluating your work.

Assignments
Writing Assignment #1
This assignment is worth 45% of your grade, and will serve as the midterm exam for this course.

Select three of the following topics, and compose an essay (not to exceed 2,000 words each typed, double-spaced) on each of the three topics. You must read, and cite, at least two of the recommended texts for this assignment.

1. How does the Jewish prayer book manifest the Jewish belief system?
2. What are the unique features of the Hebrew calendar?
3. Describe three major life-cycle events in traditional Jewish life, and explain how they reflect the communal dimension of Judaism.
5. What are the characteristics of Jewish dietary law, and how do food habits shape a Jewish way of living?

Writing Assignment #2
This assignment is worth 45% of your grade, and will serve as the final exam for this course.

Select three of the following topics, and compose an essay (not to exceed 2,000 words each typed, double-spaced) on each of the three topics. You must read, and cite, at least two of the recommended texts for this assignment.

1. How did the Hebrew Bible become a canon text?
2. What were the major literary documents of the Rabbinic Movement?
3. When did Jewish Mysticism emerge, and what is unique about the mystical idea of God?
4. What was the major contribution of Jewish philosophy to Jewish culture in the Middle Ages and in modern times?
5. How did the writing of history generate Jewish secularism?

Academic Dishonesty:
The School of Historical, Philosophical and Religious Studies abides by ASU’s “Student Academic Integrity Policy.”
http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity

Plagiarism:
Plagiarism is stealing. Whenever you borrow a phrase, sentence, paragraph—even an idea stated in your own words—from any outside source (news writing, magazine, TV show, book) without giving credit to that source, you have plagiarized. Plagiarism is cheating yourself and someone else. The consequences are severe including failure for the assignment, probable failure for the course, disciplinary referral to the Dean and possible expulsion from the University. For more information, see the Writing Programs Guide at http://english.cis.asu.edu/writingprograms.

Disability Accommodations:
Qualified students with disabilities who will require disability accommodations in this class are encouraged to make their requests to me at the beginning of the semester either during office hours or by appointment. Note: Prior to receiving disability accommodations, verification of eligibility from the Disability Resource Center (DRC) is required. Disability information is confidential.

Establishing Eligibility for Disability Accommodations:
Students who feel they will need disability accommodations in this class but have not registered with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) should contact DRC immediately. Their office is located on the first floor of the Matthews Center Building. DRC staff can also be reached at: 480-965-1234 (V), 480-965-9000 (TTY). For additional information, visit: www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc. Their hours are 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday.
