

Arizona State University Criteria Checklist for

CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN THE UNITED STATES [C]

Rationale and Objectives

The contemporary "culture" of the United States involves the complex interplay of many different cultures that exist side by side in various states of harmony and conflict. The history of the United States involves the experiences not only of different groups of European immigrants and their descendants but also of diverse groups, including, but not limited to, American Indians, Latinos, African Americans, and Asian Americans--all of whom played significant roles in the development of contemporary culture and together shape the future of the United States. At the same time, the recognition that gender, class, and religious differences cut across all distinctions of race and ethnicity offers an even richer variety of perspectives from which to view ourselves. Awareness of our cultural diversity and its multiple sources can illuminate our collective past, present, and future and can help us to achieve greater mutual understanding and respect.

The objective of the Cultural Diversity requirement is to promote awareness and appreciation of cultural diversity within the contemporary United States through the study of the cultural, social, or scientific contributions of women and minority groups, examination of their experiences in the U.S., or exploration of successful or unsuccessful interactions between and among cultural groups.

Fall 2014

Time: MW 9:00 to 9:50 AM

Location: Culture Science Building Room

This is a hybrid class and therefore will be conducted face to face and on the computer. The class will meet face to face on Monday and Wednesday. On Friday you will be required to complete assignments on the computer through the canvas site and the publisher web site for the book.

Instructor

Rose Marie Lichtenfels, MSW, MA, LCSW

Home Phone: 985-2366

E-Mail: rosieml@cox.net

Required Text: Victimology, 7th Edition, William Doerner and Steven Lab, Elsevier. ISBN-13: 978-0323287654. Please refer to the start here portion of the canvas class to learn more information about the choices you have in purchasing your book.

Optional/Instructor Text: Violence and Abuse Issues: Cross-Cultural Perspectives for Health and Social Services, 1st Edition, Lee Ann Hoff, ISBN-13: 978-0415465724

Course Description: The focus of this class is on victimology and techniques of crises intervention and the importance of a multicultural perspective. The class includes coverage of sexual assault, family violence, child abuse, post-traumatic stress disorder, substance abuse, coping skills, stress management, and community resources.

Prerequisites: There are no prerequisites to take this class.

Computer Skills Required: You will need to know

- How to browse the internet and search engines.
- The basic e-mail commands to check mail, send, and reply, forward and send attachments.

- How to copy from your word processor and paste to an e-mail message and from your e-mail to your word processor.
- How to download software and helper applications from the Internet. (Chrome, Firefox, Internet Explorer, Acrobat Reader, Real Player, Shockwave, Flash, QuickTime, etc.)

Expectations:

1. Attend all class sessions.
2. Read all readings listed on the course outline and come to class prepared to discuss these readings.
3. Participate actively in classroom discussions and exercises.
4. Turn in assignments on time, unless the instructor is contacted in advance of the due date and an extension is negotiated. Any assignment that is one class late will be marked down one letter grade. If the assignment is turned in later than one class date it will not be accepted and will be recorded as a zero.
5. Contact the instructor within two weeks of receiving a grade on any assignment if you feel you have been graded unfairly.
6. Cell phones and all other communication devices MUST be turned off during class. If you are someone who has to be contacted for emergencies please place your phone on vibrate and let me know your circumstances. If you use any of these devices in class, you will first be asked to turn it off. Further use will result in your being asked to leave class.

Course Format: A hybrid course moves some of the class time online in order to reduce the time you have to spend in the classroom. The in class portion of our course will include lectures, class discussion, small group participation and experiential exercises. The online portion of this course will include viewing videos, taking quizzes, and posting in online discussions. As stated in my introduction, you will be in class on Monday and Wednesday and on Fridays you will be required to complete assignments outside of class. The hybrid format will allow you to spend valuable class time on interactive activities, discussions, presentations and lectures, while the online component of our course will allow you to prepare for classes, take quizzes, and interact asynchronously with your classmates.

Many instructors and students consider hybrid to be the best of both worlds - you still have valuable face-to-face guidance from your instructor, but you also have some of the flexibility of an online class. But remember, this format also puts more responsibility on you as a student. You can't simply show up for class each week and expect to learn. You must actively participate both during and outside of class.

Scholastic Integrity: Students should exhibit the qualities of honesty and integrity. Any form of dishonesty, cheating, the facilitation of dishonesty and plagiarism make you subject to disciplinary action per MCC policy.

Make-up Examinations: All students are required to take the exams on the days they are given. The instructor reserves the right to decide if a make-up exam is to be given.

Attendance: Classes begin on time and students are expected to attend all scheduled classes. Role will be taken at each class. If you are not there it will be your responsibility to obtain notes and other material from a classmate. Absences or tardiness in excess of three may result in your being withdrawn without credit or notification per MCC policy.

Withdrawals: Policy set forth in MCC catalog will be followed. Students who officially withdraw from credit classes (in fall, spring, or summer) within the withdrawal deadlines listed below will receive a 100% refund for tuition, class and registration processing fees. Refer to individual colleges for withdrawal and refund processes.

Length of Class	Official Withdrawal Deadlines for 100% Re
70+ calendar days	7 calendar days including the class start d

Note: Students will be charged tuition and fees when dropped from classes after the 100% refund period (whether through the enrollment cancellation process for non-payment or instructor removal for failure to attend).

Students are responsible for officially withdrawing from class. The instructor will initiate a withdrawal for a student for poor attendance on the 45th day roster. After that date, students will receive a letter grade for the course. If you just stop coming to class and do not in any way contact me you may very well end up with an “F” at the end of the semester. It is your responsibility to officially withdraw from class. It is not my responsibility to track you down.

Code of Conduct: If a student becomes disruptive during class the instructor will give one verbal warning to that student. After that if the behavior continues the student will be removed from the class. Please refer to the Student Handbook for information regarding MCC policy on this behavior.

Netiquette: Realize that what you send over the Internet will directly affect others in the class. Whether you are sending an email or posting a message on the course discussion board, be sure to relate to your instructor and classmates in a polite and considerate manner.

Student Responsibilities: Please be advised that your continued enrollment and participation in this class implies that you have read and accepted the terms and conditions of this syllabus. Also please be advised that you are responsible for being aware of and in compliance with the college policies included in the college catalog and the student handbook (page 117). You may also access both of these publications online at <http://www.mc.marciopa.edu/students/publications.html> or receive a copy of the handbook at the student center.

Tutoring: Free tutoring is available to MCC students at the Learning Enhancement Center in the library. Students must present a picture ID and documentation of registration for the current semester. For more information, call 461-7678 or visit <http://www.mesacc.edu/library/LE/>.

Disabilities: The instructor is willing to make any reasonable accommodations for students with limitations due to disabilities, including learning disabilities. Please see me after class to discuss any special needs you might have. If a student wants to tape lectures please see me on a one to one basis to discuss why you want to do that. If you have a documented disability and require specific accommodations you will need to contact the Disability Resources and Services Office at 461-7447, or <http://www.mesacc.edu/students/disability/> or in building 37 Student Services Complex, to obtain an Instructor Notification Form. See Student Handbook page 147.

Students with disabilities must have an equally effective and equivalent educational opportunity as those students without disabilities. Students experiencing difficulty accessing course materials because of a disability are expected to contact the course instructor so that a solution can be found that provides all students equal access to course materials and technology.

Information for Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability, including a learning disability, and would like to discuss possible accommodations, please contact the MCC Disabilities Resources and Services Office at 480-461-7447 or email drsfrontdesk@mesacc.edu.

MCC Early Alert Program (EARS): Mesa Community College is committed to the success of all our students. Numerous campus support services are available throughout your academic journey to assist you in achieving your educational goals. MCC has adopted an Early Alert Referral System (EARS) as part of a student success initiative to aid students in their educational pursuits. Faculty and Staff participate by alerting and referring students to campus services for added support. Students may receive a follow up call from various campus services as a result of being referred to EARS. Students are encouraged to participate, but these services are optional. Early Alert Web Page with Campus Resource Information can be located at <http://www.mesacc.edu/students/ears>.

Student Grievance: Please, refer to the Student Handbook (Section 2.3.5). Discuss the issue with the instructor. If the problem is not solved, the student may continue the process by filing a written complaint with the Department Chair, Steve Budge: 480-461-7062 or email: budge@mesacc.edu.

Sexual Harassment: Students who experience sexual harassment in the academic environment (by a faculty member, administrator, campus visitor or other student) are urged to report such conduct to the Vice President of Academic Affairs. Please, refer to the Student Handbook (Section 2.4.4).

MCC Student Central: Find everything you need in one place at <http://www.mc.maricopa.edu/students/>.

General Information: This syllabus may be subject to change. The instructor will notify students of any changes in the course requirements or policies of this class.

GRADES: Your semester grade will be based on performance in the following areas:

Class Attendance/Participation 5 points x 32 classes =	160 points
Discussion Boards 20 points x 4 posts =	80 points
Cultural Paper and Presentation	60 points
Chapter Reading Quizzes- 10 points x 9 quizzes =	90 points
Child Abuse Paper	20 points
Mid-term and Final exam 100 points x 2 exams =	200 points
TOTAL	610 points

The course will use a percentage ratio to determine grades. Grades will be broke down as follows:

A = 100 to 90 percent

B = 89 to 80 percent

C = 79 to 70 percent

D = 69 to 60 percent

F = 59 to 0 percent

Grading Scale*

A =92%-100% (561-610 points)

B =82%-91% (500-560 points)

C = 72% - 81% (439-499 points)

D = 62%-71% (378-438 points)

F = 61% (377 or below)

Your attendance and punctuality are essential for success. If you are absent you are responsible for all material and assignments that you miss. Call or e-mail a classmate to find out what you missed. Late work is not accepted.

Grading and feedback: Within one week of the due date.

Dimensions of Culture Paper and Cultural presentation:

You will pick a type of culture, religious or ethnic group and learn about how they handle grief in that cultural group. Find out how they treat their dying members. What they do when a person has passed on and the rituals that are important to the group you have decided to talk about.

You will then report back to the class on what you have learned about your chosen group.

You will turn in your paper and give a presentation of your topic to the class. You can give them handouts; do a power point presentation or just talk to the class. However you choose to do it you must make the rest of the class feel like they know exactly how they can assist that group of victims in their time of need.

More details on this assignment can be found on canvas

Week eight 10-15
