GENERAL STUDIES COURSE PROPOSAL COVER FORM

Copy and paste current course information from Class Search/Course Catalog.

College/School: College of Health Solutions
Department: School for the Science of Health Care Delivery

Prefix ME  D Number 300 Title Historical and Contemporary Issues in Health Units: 3

Is this a cross-listed course? No
If yes, please identify course(s)

Is this a shared course? No
If so, list all academic units offering this course

Note: For courses that are cross-listed and/or shared, a letter of support from the chair/director of each department that offers the course is required for each designation requested. By submitting this letter of support, the chair/director agrees to ensure that all faculty teaching the course are aware of the General Studies designation(s) and will teach the course in a manner that meets the criteria for each approved designation.

Is this a permanent numbered course with topics? No

If yes, all topics under this permanent numbered course must be taught in a manner that meets the criteria for the approved designation(s). It is the responsibility of the chair/director to ensure that all faculty teaching the course are aware of the General Studies designation(s) and adhere to the above guidelines.

Chair/Director Initials

Course description: History of medicine in the modern world and its relationship to contemporary issues in medicine with emphasis on the broader context of ways in which technology, personalized medicine, genomics, ethical issues, and shared decision making between patients and providers have evolved.

Requested designation: Literacy and Critical Inquiry-L Mandatory Review: (Choose one)

Note: a separate proposal is required for each designation.

Eligibility:
Permanent numbered courses must have completed the university’s review and approval process.
For the rules governing approval of omnibus courses, contact Phyllis Lucie@asu.edu.

Submission deadlines dates are as follow:
For Fall 2016 Effective Date: October 1, 2015
For Spring 2017 Effective Date: March 10, 2016

Area(s) proposed course will serve:
A single course may be proposed for more than one core or awareness area. A course may satisfy a core area requirement and more than one awareness area requirements concurrently, but may not satisfy requirements in two core areas simultaneously, even if approved for those areas. With departmental consent, an approved General Studies course may be counted toward both the General Studies requirement and the major program of study.

Checklists for general studies designations:
Complete and attach the appropriate checklist
- Literacy and Critical Inquiry core courses (L)
- Mathematics core courses (MA)
- Computer/statistics/quantitative applications core courses (CS)
- Humanities, Arts and Design core courses (HD)
- Social Behavioral Sciences core courses (SB)
- Natural Sciences core courses (NS/S)
- Cultural Diversity in the United States courses (C)
- Global Awareness courses (G)
- Historical Awareness courses (H)

A complete proposal should include:
☑ Signed course proposal cover form
☑ Criteria checklist for General Studies designation(s) being requested
☑ Course catalog description
☑ Sample syllabus for the course
☑ Copy of table of contents from the textbook and list of required readings/books

It is respectfully requested that proposals are submitted electronically with all files compiled into one PDF.

Rationale and Objectives

Literacy is here defined broadly as communicative competence—that is, competence in written and oral discourse. Critical inquiry involves the gathering, interpretation, and evaluation of evidence. Any field of university study may require unique critical skills that have little to do with language in the usual sense (words), but the analysis of written and spoken evidence pervades university study and everyday life. Thus, the General Studies requirements assume that all undergraduates should develop the ability to reason critically and communicate using the medium of language.

The requirement in Literacy and Critical Inquiry presumes, first, that training in literacy and critical inquiry must be sustained beyond traditional First Year English in order to create a habitual skill in every student; and, second, that the skill levels become more advanced, as well as more secure, as the student learns challenging subject matter. Thus, two courses beyond First Year English are required in order for students to meet the Literacy and Critical Inquiry requirement.

Most lower-level [L] courses are devoted primarily to the further development of critical skills in reading, writing, listening, speaking, or analysis of discourse. Upper-division [L] courses generally are courses in a particular discipline into which writing and critical thinking have been fully integrated as means of learning the content and, in most cases, demonstrating that it has been learned.

Notes:

1. ENG 101, 107 or ENG 105 must be prerequisites
2. Honors theses, XXX 493 meet [L] requirements
3. The list of criteria that must be satisfied for designation as a Literacy and Critical Inquiry [L] course is presented on the following page. This list will help you determine whether the current version of your course meets all of these requirements. If you decide to apply, please attach a current syllabus, or handouts, or other documentation that will provide sufficient information for the General Studies Council to make an informed decision regarding the status of your proposal.

Revised April 2014
Proposer: Please complete the following section and attach appropriate documentation.

ASU - [L] CRITERIA

TO QUALIFY FOR [L] DESIGNATION, THE COURSE DESIGN MUST PLACE A MAJOR EMPHASIS ON COMPLETING CRITICAL DISCOURSE--AS EVIDENCED BY THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
<th>Identify Documentation Submitted</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>☒</td>
<td></td>
<td>Course syllabus includes specific methods of evaluation, including critical reflections, discussion boards, a bibliographic essay, and a final (written) project (p.7-9). Guidelines and rubrics for most included. Detail presented below.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Please describe the assignments that are considered in the computation of course grades--and indicate the proportion of the final grade that is determined by each assignment.

2. Also:

   Please circle, underline, or otherwise mark the information presented in the most recent course syllabus (or other material you have submitted) that verifies this description of the grading process--and label this information "C-1".

<th>CRITERION 3:</th>
<th>The syllabus should include a minimum of two writing and/or speaking assignments that are substantial in depth, quality, and quantity. Substantial writing assignments entail sustained in-depth engagement with the material. Examples include research papers, reports, articles, essays, or speeches that reflect critical inquiry and evaluation. Assignments such as brief reaction papers, opinion pieces, reflections, discussion posts, and impromptu presentations are not considered substantial writing/speaking assignments.</th>

1. Please provide relatively detailed descriptions of two or more substantial writing or speaking tasks that are included in the course requirements

2. Also:

   Please circle, underline, or otherwise mark the information presented in the most recent course syllabus (or other material you have submitted) that verifies this description of the grading process--and label this information "C-3".
CRITERION 4: These substantial writing or speaking assignments should be arranged so that the students will get timely feedback from the instructor on each assignment in time to help them do better on subsequent assignments. Intervention at earlier stages in the writing process is especially welcomed.

<td>Course syllabus includes specific methods of evaluation, including critical reflections, discussion boards, a bibliographic essay, and a final (written) project (p.7-9). Guidelines and rubrics for most included.</td>
<td>Students are required to complete seven critical reflection activities; two discussion board postings; and one final project. Critical reflection activities must follow specific, published guidelines for students in the health-related professions (3-5pgs). Discussion board postings must also follow specific guidelines to enhance critical thinking and analysis. The bibliographic essay includes a comprehensive review of the literature and helps students to focus further their final projects (10 - 15 pages). The final project encompasses all key concepts, and encourages students to be creative in designing a health professions program of the future (7-10pgs).</td>

<td>Critical reflection activities require students to synthesize information from multiple sources, using probing questions to deepen thinking. Discussion board postings require students to locate and post an article related to the topic, synthesize it for the class using guiding questions, then respond to other posts using different guiding questions. In the bibliographic essay, using at least 10 peer-reviewed resources not referenced in class, students summarize critical points, identify common themes, and areas of future research. The final project requires students to incorporate minimum of 5 peer-reviewed resources not referenced in class. The sources must be synthesized and incorporated but creativity and innovation are encouraged.</td>

This activity exceeds &quot;standard&quot; reflection activities, as students are required to pull resources from the literature, seek peer feedback, and follow a construct that encourages deep, critical reflection. The bibliographic essay requires students to research at least 10 peer-reviewed resources not referenced in class, and to synthesize the information, culminating in a 10 - 15 page essay. The final project requires students to synthesize information from the semester and functions as a research report (7-10pgs).</td>

Face-to-face: M & W 10:45-12pm DPC UCENT 238
i-course: Asynchronous course delivery; no in person meetings required

Prerequisites: Students are encouraged to have completed 25-30 credit hours prior to enrollment.

Corequisites: None

Catalog Description: Introduction to the history of medicine in the modern world and its relationship to contemporary issues in medicine with emphasis on the broader context of ways in which technology, personalized medicine, genomics, ethical issues, and shared decision-making between patients and providers have evolved.

Course Overview: What does it mean to be a physician or member of the health care team? How has medicine evolved over time, and what are the challenges today? We will review important US and global historical events in medicine, and discuss how they have influenced current professional roles in medicine and health care. We will also discuss potential challenges with incorporating new technologies in clinical practice, the importance of shared decision-making and patient-centered care, and what it means to be a physician or member of the health care team in the 21st century.

Learning Outcomes:
At completion of this course students will be able to:
1. Explain the historical development of modern medicine and its evolution to contemporary issues in health.
2. Gain perspective on the ethical implications of contemporary health care in the social, cultural, and political context.
3. Understand the implications of science and medicine in shaping professional roles and patient expectations.
4. Identify concepts of personalized medicine that contribute to improved health outcomes.

Course Materials:
Required: Articles, videos and other materials will be provided throughout the course. It is strongly recommended students obtain textbooks by Porter and Shem (listed below).

Description of Assessments  C1 – C4

1. Critical reflection activities (7 @ 20 points each):
Using information presented in class discussion, reading assignments (articles, texts), videos and other resources, please select one key concept that was particularly new and/or challenging – and reflect on your learning using the following template (S-O-A-P).

Students will be provided time in class to “workshop” drafts in order to deepen thinking, reflection and analysis.  C2

Please submit the reflection as a Word or PDF document to Blackboard. Please use Times New Roman 12pt font and double space the document. Minimum length 3 pages – maximum 5 pages.

Please answer the following questions, using the Purdue OWL website as a guide [https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/685/04/]:

Critical reflection guidelines and grading rubric:

SUBJECTIVE (3 points)
Describe the concept(s) and the rationale for selecting.
- Describe the situation and context, including your thoughts and feelings at the time.  (Content)
- How did you approach the class discussion, readings, or material? How did the behaviors or choices of others impact you? What went well? What didn’t? (Process)
- Consider why things happened as they did. What assumptions did you and others make? What system factors may have contributed to this problem? (Premise)

OBJECTIVE (5 points)
Reconsider the concept(s) from multiple perspectives. Go beyond imagining others’ perspectives to obtaining data: 1) Use open-ended, open-minded questions to elicit opinions, interpretations and feedback from mentors, supervisors, other professionals, and/or peers, and/or 2) consult the literature or other sources of relevant information. Useful objective data will help you reframe your understanding the experience and deepen your learning.  C2, C3
ASSESSMENT (5 points)
Synthesize your learning: What educational, personal or professional challenges and/or strengths have you identified? How did this experience relate to your past experiences? What personal/professional patterns have you identified? How has this analysis affected how you will approach similar situations in the future? Look for larger learning/ professional development issues. Specify lessons learned or questions/learning issues identified.

PLAN (7 points)
Make a plan to address future similar challenges or concept(s). The plan should be SMART: Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant and Timely. The plan should include: a) what specific next steps you will take; b) where you can get the information or help you need; c) who you will check in with and when; and d) how you and your check in person will know whether or not your plan is working. If the plan is SMART, you should be able to assess the utility of your action items for furthering your learning or practice in days to weeks or months at the most.

2. In-class activities (3 @ 20 points each)
Students are encouraged to read materials in advance to enhance the team experience. Discussion and lecture will follow the in-class activities to improve application, understanding. Students will submit the results of group activities independently to Blackboard. Online students will be placed in groups to complete the assignments virtually. Please submit as a Word or PDF document to Blackboard. Please use Times New Roman 12pt font and double space the document. The total length should not exceed 2 pages.

3. Discussion Board (2 @ 20 points each):
Post an article (not from the assigned readings) related to the topic presented, provide a one-paragraph summary, and answer at least two of the following questions (10 points):
   1. What specific elements of our course materials relate to this experience?
   2. How was I able to apply a skill, perspective, or concept related to our academic material?
   3. What similarities and differences are there between the perspective on the situation offered by our academic material, and the situation as it in fact unfolded?
   4. How does this experience enhance my knowledge of a specific reading, theory, or concept? Does it challenge or reinforce my prior understanding?
   5. Based on analysis of the experience in light of course material, is the material (or my prior understanding of it) adequate? What reasons might there be for any differences or inadequacies? What questions should I ask to put myself in a better position to judge the adequacy of the material?

Respond to one of your classmates articles by answering one of the following questions (10 points):
   1. What specific elements of our course materials relate to this experience?
2. How was I able to apply a skill, perspective, or concept related to our academic material?

3. What similarities and differences are there between the perspective on the situation offered by our academic material, and the situation as it in fact unfolded?

4. How does this experience enhance my knowledge of a specific reading, theory, or concept? Does it challenge or reinforce my prior understanding?

5. Based on analysis of the experience in light of course material, is the material (or my prior understanding of it) adequate? What reasons might there be for any differences or inadequacies? What questions should I ask to put myself in a better position to judge the adequacy of the material?

4. Bibliographic Essay: Complete a bibliographic essay or review of the current literature relevant to medical or health professions education. The essay should include a comprehensive array of literature, while helping to focus the final project. Students should summarize critical points, identify common themes, and areas of future research. Please submit as a Word or PDF document to Blackboard. Please use Times New Roman 12pt font and double space the document. Use at least 10 peer-reviewed resources (journals, textbooks) that were not referenced in class. Minimum length 10 pages – maximum 15 pages. C2

The grading rubric will be distributed and discussed in class. Students will be provided with timely feedback to permit revision, improvement and professional development prior to the final project.

5. Final Project: Use all of the information presented in class, including historical texts, articles and in class activities, to design the medical education (or health professions education) program of the future. Address all of the "hot topics" we discussed in class – including teamwork, resilience, ethics, technology, and historical lessons from the literature. The plan must be feasible, but creativity and innovation are encouraged! Please submit as a Word or PDF document to Blackboard. Please use Times New Roman 12pt font and double space the document. Use at least 5 peer-reviewed resources (journals, textbooks) that were not referenced in class. Minimum length 7 pages – maximum 10 pages. C2

The grading rubric will be distributed and discussed in class. Students will be provided the opportunity to "workshop" project drafts with peers before the deadline.

Grading Procedure
Grades reflect your performance on assignments and adherence to deadlines. Graded assignments will be available within 48 hours of the due date via the My Grades tab in Blackboard. C4

Course Policies & Procedures

Technology Enhanced Course
This course is offered as a face-face course or an i-course. The face-to-face course requires attendance in face-face meetings and utilization of online resources. The i-course requires access to web-based materials, Blackboard™, videos and other online course materials outlined on the syllabus. No face-to-face meetings are required.

Communicating With the Instructor
This course uses a Blackboard™ discussion board called “Hallway Conversations” for general questions about the course. Prior to posting a question, please check the syllabus, announcements, and existing posts. If you do not find an answer, post your question. You are encouraged to respond to the questions of your classmates. Email questions of a personal nature to your instructor or assigned TA or schedule an appointment during office hours. You can expect a response within 48 hours.

Email and Internet
ASU email is an official means of communication among students, faculty, and staff (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm107-03.html). Students are expected to read and act upon email in a timely fashion. Students bear the responsibility of missed messages and should check their ASU-assigned e-mail regularly. All instructor correspondence will be sent to your ASU email account.

Campus Network or Blackboard™ Outage
When access to Blackboard™ is not available for an extended period of time (greater than one entire evening) you can reasonably expect that the due date for assignments will be change to the next day (assignment still due by 11:59PM).
If an outage occurs, it is expected that you will confirm that the outage is with the University and not with your local internet service provider. To monitor the status of campus networks and services, please visit the System Health Portal (http://syshealth.asu.edu/). If a system-wide ASU outage is NOT listed, you are responsible for contacting the ASU Help Desk to report and troubleshoot the issue. By contacting the help desk, a request case number will be created for you, which serves as an important documentation of your attempt to resolve any technical problems in a timely fashion. You may be required to forward this documentation to your instructor.

Course Time Commitment
This three-credit 15 week course requires approximately 135 hours of work. Please expect to spend around 9 hours each week preparing for and actively participating in this course.

Late or Missed Assignments
Notify the instructor BEFORE an assignment is due if an urgent situation arises and the assignment will not be submitted on time. Published assignment due dates (Arizona Mountain Standard time) are firm. Please follow the appropriate University policies to request accommodation for religious practices (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd304-04.html) or to accommodate a missed assignment due to University sanctioned activities (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd304-02.html).

Submitting Assignments
All assignments unless otherwise announced, MUST be submitted to the designated area of Blackboard™. Do not submit an assignment via other methods unless specifically directed.

Drop and Add Dates/Withdrawals
This course adheres to a set schedule and may be part of a sequenced program, therefore, there is a limited timeline to drop or add the course (http://students.asu.edu/academic-calendar). Consult with your advisor and notify your instructor to add or drop this course. If you are considering a withdrawal, review the following ASU policies:

- Withdrawal from Classes (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm201-08html)
- Medical/Compassionate Withdrawal (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm201-09html)
- Grade of Incomplete (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm203-09.html)

Grade Appeals
Grade disputes must first be addressed by discussing the situation with the instructor. If the dispute is not resolved with the instructor, the student may appeal to the department chair per the University Policy for Student Appeal Procedures on Grades (https://catalog.asu.edu/appeal).
Student Conduct and Academic Integrity
ASU expects and requires its students to act with honesty, integrity, and respect. Required behavior standards are listed in the Student Code of Conduct and Student Disciplinary Procedures (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm104-01.html), Computer, Internet, and Electronic Communications policy (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd125.html), ASU Student Academic Integrity Policy (http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity), and outlined by the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities (https://eoss.asu.edu/dos/srr). Anyone in violation of these policies is subject to sanctions.

Students are entitled to receive instruction free from interference by other members of the class (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/ssm/ssm104-02.html). An instructor may withdraw a student from the course when the student's behavior disrupts the educational process per Instructor Withdrawal of a Student for Disruptive Classroom Behavior (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/usi/usi201-10.html).

Appropriate online behavior (also known as netiquette) is defined by the instructor and includes keeping course discussion posts focused on the assigned topics. Students must maintain a cordial atmosphere and use tact in expressing differences of opinion. Inappropriate discussion board posts may be deleted by the instructor. The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities accepts incident reports (https://eoss.asu.edu/dos/srr/filingreport) from students, faculty, staff, or other persons who believe that a student or a student organization may have violated the Student Code of Conduct.

Prohibition of Commercial Note Taking Services
In accordance with ACD 304-06 Commercial Note Taking Services (http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd304-06.html), written permission must be secured from the official instructor of the class in order to sell the instructor's oral communication in the form of notes. Notes must have the note taker's name as well as the instructor's name, the course number, and the date.

Course Evaluation
Students are expected to complete the course evaluation. The feedback provides valuable information to the instructor and the college and is used to improve student learning. Students are notified when the online evaluation form is available.

Syllabus Disclaimer
The syllabus is a statement of intent and serves as an implicit agreement between the instructor and the student. Every effort will be made to avoid changing the course schedule but the possibility exists that unforeseen events will make syllabus changes necessary. Please remember to check your ASU email and the course site often.

Title IX
Title IX is a federal law that provides that no person be excluded on the basis of sex from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and university policy make clear that sexual violence and harassment based on sex is prohibited. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed on the basis of sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed on the basis of sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at http://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs/students

About the author (2010)

By turns heartbreaking, hilarious, and utterly human, The House of God is a mesmerizing and provocative novel about Roy Basch and five of his fellow interns at the most renowned teaching hospital in the country.

Struggling with grueling hours and sudden life-and-death responsibilities, Basch and his colleagues, under the leadership of their rule-breaking senior resident known only as the Fat Man, must learn not only how to be fine doctors but, eventually, good human beings.

A phenomenon ever since it was published, The House of God was the first unvarnished, unglorified, and uncensored portrait of what training to become a doctor is truly like, in all its terror, exhaustion and black comedy. With more than two million copies sold worldwide, it has been hailed as one of the most important medical novels ever written.

Samuel Shem is a novelist, playwright, and, for three decades, a member of the Harvard Medical School faculty. His novels include The House of God, Mount Misery, and Fine. He is coauthor with his wife, Janet Surrey, of the hit Off-Broadway play Bill W. and Dr. Bob, the story of the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous (winner of the 2007 Performing Arts Award of the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence), and We Have to Talk: Healing Dialogues Between Men and Women.
Blood & Guts

"These were the best years of medical teaching. We taught medicine from the ground up, from the bottom up."

The art has three factors, the disease, the patient, the physician. The physician is the servant of the art. The patient must cooperate with the physician in combating the disease.
