MANDATORY REVIEW:

- The above specified course is undergoing Mandatory Review for the following Core or Awareness Area (only one area is permitted; if a course meets more than one Core or Awareness Area, please submit a separate Mandatory Review Cover Form for each Area).

POLICY: The General Studies Council (GSC-T) Policies and Procedures requires the review of previously approved community college courses every five years, to verify that they continue to meet the requirements of Core or Awareness Areas already assigned to these courses. This review is also necessary as the General Studies program evolves.

AREA(S) PROPOSED COURSE WILL SERVE: A course may be proposed for more than one core or awareness area. Although a course may satisfy a core area requirement and an awareness area requirement concurrently, a course may not be used to satisfy requirements in two core or awareness areas simultaneously, even if approved for those areas. With departmental consent, an approved General Studies course may be counted toward both the General Studies requirements and the major program of study.

CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN THE UNITED STATES [C]

Rationale and Objectives

The contemporary "culture" of the United States involves the complex interplay of many different cultures that exist side by side in various states of harmony and conflict. The history of the United States involves the experiences not only of different groups of European immigrants and their descendants but also of diverse groups of American Indians, Hispanic Americans, African Americans, and Asian Americans—all of whom played significant roles in the development of contemporary culture and together shape the future of the United States. At the same time, the recognition that gender, class, and religious differences cut across all distinctions of race and ethnicity offers an even richer variety of perspectives from which to view ourselves. Awareness of our cultural diversity and its multiple sources can illuminate our collective past, present, and future and can help us to achieve greater mutual understanding and respect.

The objective of the Cultural Diversity requirement is to promote awareness and appreciation of cultural diversity within the contemporary United States through the study of the cultural, social, or scientific contributions of women and minority groups, examination of their experiences in the U.S., or exploration of successful or unsuccessful interactions between and among cultural groups.

1. A Cultural Diversity course must meet the following general criteria:

   - The course must contribute to an understanding of cultural diversity in contemporary U.S. Society.

   See column 3 on next page

2. A Cultural Diversity course must then meet at least one of the following specific criteria:

   a. The course is an in-depth study of culture-specific elements, cultural experiences, or cultural contributions (in areas such as education, history, language, literature, art, music, science, politics, work, religion, and philosophy) of gender*, racial, ethnic and/or linguistic minority groups within the United States.

   ![Box] ![Box] |

   See column 3 on next page

   b. The course is primarily a comparative study of the diverse cultural contributions, experiences, or world views of two or more gender*, racial, ethnic and/or linguistic minority groups within the United States.

   ![Box] ![Box] |

   c. The course is primarily a study of the social, economic, political, or psychological dimensions of relations between and among gender*, racial, ethnic and/or linguistic minority groups within the United States.

   ![Box] ![Box] |

*Gender groups would encompass categories such as the following: women, men, lesbians, gays, bisexuals, transgender individuals, etc.

Cultural, racial, ethnic, and/or linguistic minority groups in the U.S. would include categories such as the following: Hispanics, African Americans, Native Americans/First Peoples, Asian Americans, Jewish Americans, Muslim Americans, members of the deaf community, etc.

Grading

There will be 4 exams and a term project that will make up your grade for this class (a separate handout will detail this project). If you miss an exam and your absence is unexcused you will receive "zero" points for the exam. You must notify me before the exam takes place for your absence to be excused. I may require written documentation. Final grades will be determined based on the scales below.

Attendance Policy

Many of the exam questions will be based on material covered in class that may not be covered in the book. Therefore, attendance will be very important in determining your success in this class. You are responsible for obtaining materials from your fellow students if you miss class. Excessive absences may result in your being dropped or withdrawn from the class.

Disability Statement

Scottsdale Community College will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented disabilities. You must notify Disability Resources and Services and your instructor of any special needs that you have. You can contact Disability Resources and Services at (480) 423-6517.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty on any assignment will not be tolerated. If a student is caught cheating he/she will receive "zero" points for the assignment. Subsequent infractions will result in withdrawal from the course with a failing grade ("Y") and possible suspension from the college. See the Academic Misconduct policy of the student handbook for more information.
Positive Learning Environment

The Maricopa Community Colleges are committed to working with its employees to maintain an environment free from violence, threats of violence, harassment, intimidation, and other disruptive behavior.

As an instructor, I am expected to be professional, courteous, respectful, and empathetic to students and to accomplish the following:

- Be prepared for each class session
- Establish a “safe space” for students to feel comfortable asking questions, bringing up issues, and sharing information
- Clarify assignments and inform students of any adjustments to the class schedule
- Provide academic feedback and grade assignments in a timely manner
- Be available for individual consultation

As a student, you are expected to be reflective, courteous, respectful, and empathetic to classmates, instructors, and other college staff assisting you in your learning and to accomplish the following:

- Be respectful of whatever is occurring during class time by not engaging in conversations with classmates, text messaging, answering telephones (all cell phones should be turned off or on vibrate), or engaging in distracting behavior
- Be responsible for and abide by the policies set forth in this syllabus and the college policies included in the college catalog and the student handbook
- Be in class and be on time
- Be prepared for class sessions
- Participate in class activities
- Keep up with and turn in assignments by the due dates
- Follow instructions and complete assignments
- Ask questions when you don’t understand
- Maintain knowledge of your grade status
- Put forth your best effort

Please contact me right away about concerns or situations that interfere with your success in the class. Students who continually disrupt the learning environment will be given a verbal warning and may be asked to leave class. Subsequent infractions will be subject to disciplinary action as outlined in the student handbook.
