College/School: College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
Department/School: School of Historical, Philosophical and Religious Studies

Prefix: HST  Number: 306  Title: Studies in US History (Outlaws, Indians & Ladies of the West)  Units: 3

Course description:

Is this a cross-listed course? No
If yes, please identify course(s):

Is this a shared course? No
If so, list all academic units offering this course:

Note- For courses that are crosslisted and/or shared, a letter of support from the chair/director of each department that offers the course is required for each designation requested. By submitting this letter of support, the chair/director agrees to ensure that all faculty teaching the course are aware of the General Studies designation(s) and will teach the course in a manner that meets the criteria for each approved designation.

Is this a permanent-numbered course with topics? Yes

If yes, each topic requires an individual submission, separate from other topics.

Requested designation: Humanities, Arts and Design - HU
Mandatory Review: Yes

Note- a separate proposal is required for each designation.

Eligibility: Permanent numbered courses must have completed the university’s review and approval process. For the rules governing approval of omnibus courses, contact Phyllis.Lucie@asu.edu.

Submission deadlines dates are as follow:
For Fall 2020 Effective Date: October 10, 2019
For Spring 2021 Effective Date: March 5, 2020

Area proposed course will serve:
A single course may be proposed for more than one core or awareness area. A course may satisfy a core area requirement and more than one awareness area requirements concurrently, but may not satisfy requirements in two core areas simultaneously, even if approved for those areas. With departmental consent, an approved General Studies course may be counted toward both the General Studies requirement and the major program of study. It is the responsibility of the chair/director to ensure that all faculty teaching the course are aware of the General Studies designation(s) and adhere to the above guidelines.

Checklists for general studies designations:
Complete and attach the appropriate checklist
Literacy and Critical Inquiry core courses (L)

Rationale and Objectives

The humanities disciplines are concerned with questions of human existence and meaning, the nature of thinking and knowing, with moral and aesthetic experience. The humanities develop values of all kinds by making the human mind more supple, critical, and expansive. They are concerned with the study of the textual and artistic traditions of diverse cultures, including traditions in literature, philosophy, religion, ethics, history, and aesthetics. In sum, these disciplines explore the range of human thought and its application to the past and present human environment. They deepen awareness of the diversity of the human heritage and its traditions and histories and they may also promote the application of this knowledge to contemporary societies.

The study of the arts and design, like the humanities, deepens the student’s awareness of the diversity of human societies and cultures. The arts have as their primary purpose the creation and study of objects, installations, performances and other means of expressing or conveying aesthetic concepts and ideas. Design study concerns itself with material objects, images and spaces, their historical development, and their significance in society and culture. Disciplines in the arts and design employ modes of thought and communication that are often nonverbal, which means that courses in these areas tend to focus on objects, images, and structures and/or on the practical techniques and historical development of artistic and design traditions. The past and present accomplishments of artists and designers help form the student’s ability to perceive aesthetic qualities of art work and design.

The Humanities, Arts and Design are an important part of the General Studies Program, for they provide an opportunity for students to study intellectual and imaginative traditions and to observe and/or learn the production of art work and design. The knowledge acquired in courses fulfilling the Humanities, Arts and Design requirement may encourage students to investigate their own personal philosophies or beliefs and to understand better their own social experience. In sum, the Humanities, Arts and Design core area enables students to broaden and deepen their consideration of the variety of human experience.

Revised April 2014
of the criteria under 4 in such a way as to make the satisfaction of these criteria A CENTRAL AND SUBSTANTIAL PORTION of the course content.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The course addresses the myth and reality of the Wild West involving outlaws, Indians and women. In a series of case studies involving Americans, Indians, Mexicans, and African Americans, various topics address the conflicts and cultural exchanges of philosophies, religions, ethics, and worldviews. The course examines how early newspapers, dime novels and early literature depicted western heroes as well as what they wore and their tools had to be redesigned to meet the demand western environment. Ethnographic and historical analysis are tools of inquiry to demonstrate how individuals living in the West perceived things, used their logic and their distinct personalities in making decisions that made western history dynamic are objectives of the course.

TEXTBOOKS:

GRADING SYSTEM: Three grades will be averaged equally for the final grade, based on three exams. Approximately one week before each exam, or earlier, a study guide of 50 important terms, themes, and a dozen sample essay questions will be handed out.

Each exam will consist of two parts: The first part will be 20 fill in the blank answers from the 50 terms that I will select from the Study Guide. Each answer is worth three points for 60% of the exam. The second part of the exam is responding to 1 of 2 essay questions worth 40 points (40% of the exam) [write at least 2 or more pages using facts, themes and analysis]

There is an extra credit opportunity for up to ten points before each exam. It is writing a 3-4 page double space essay on the assigned topic.

The First Essay, “Three Individuals Who Made the Wild West,” is due Sep 17.

The Second Essay, “Three Things that Changed the West,” is due October 22.

The Third Essay, “These Three Films Defined the Old West,” is due November 19.

Submit a hard copy of 3-4 pages on the date when it is due. In each essay, compare and contrast your choices to make an argument based on facts, themes and analysis. The correct optional short essay needs to be turned on the due date, and there is no credit if you turn in the wrong essay, or if you turn it in late.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Plagiarism “means using another’s words, ideas, materials or work without properly acknowledging and documenting the source. Students are responsible for knowing the rules governing the use of another’s work or materials and for acknowledging and documenting the source appropriately.” (From the Provost website http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity)

Class Attendance is expected in this course for understanding themes and concepts, thus affecting your grade as well as participation in class discussions. The Make-Up Exam Policy is that there will be no make-up exams, (only with the exception of a doctor’s written excuse). 90-100 = A; 80-89 = B; 70-79 = C; 60-69 = D; Below 60 = E. There are no pluses and minuses for the final course grades.
