Re: Recommendations for Course Proposals for C designation

Course Recommendations

Approve for C designation

From ASU:

HST/REL 211 Jews and Judaism in America

The HST/REL 211 proposal is well developed and effectively demonstrates the alignment of course elements with the required criteria to meet the Cultural Diversity requirement. The alignment of the course content focusing on understanding cultural diversity within the U.S. is demonstrated through the course description, syllabus, course outlines and readings. This course will enhance the students' understanding and perspectives about Jewish Americans culture and contributions.
