

Out@ASU

Mission: To foster an inclusive and affirming academic and campus environment for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, asexual, questioning students and their allies. Out @ ASU promotes a campus that is open, safe and supportive, and provides educational opportunities, advocacy and programming that empower students to thrive.

LGBTQIA (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans*, Queer/Questioning, Intersex, Asexual/Ally) Services at Arizona State University works to sustain an environment of respect, compassion and equity for all. LGBTQIA Services acknowledges the impact of race, ethnicity, gender, class, culture, age, ability, size, faith and other characteristics on the LGBTQIA community and recognizes the importance of understanding, discussing and valuing multiple identities.
