Finances

Excellent academics. Personal attention. Lower tuition.

We know college costs are the first thing on most families' minds. We also know that we are committed to making ASU an affordable choice. ASU is here to work with you to finance your future. Remember, almost everyone qualifies for some form of financial aid. In fact, 9 in 10 ASU at Lake Havasu students receive some form of financial aid.

Annual base tuition and fees for 2016–2017

	Annual base tuition and fees
Arizona residents	$6,536
Out-of-state students	$9,954

Calculate your costs

Use these tools to create your personalized cost estimate and discover your scholarship opportunities.

ASU Cost Calculator

By entering a few details about your academic and financial status, the cost calculator will give you a close estimate of your costs, including housing and dining. You can also get an estimate of financial aid.

2016-2017 Standard Cost of Attendance

The cost of attendance is the estimated full and reasonable cost of completing a full year as a full-time student and includes tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies and other expenses including personal expenses and transportation.

ASU Scholarship Estimator

You can enter your ACT or SAT scores, high school class rank and cumulative competency GPA to determine the level of merit scholarship that you could receive. (Competency GPA is the GPA earned on competency courses).

Student Budget Worksheet

Create an annual budget using our student budget worksheet that itemizes direct costs (like books, housing, food) and other costs (like a parking permit or bus pass).

Applying for financial aid

For most types of financial aid, you will need to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). There is no charge for submitting the FAFSA, and you can find more information at fafsa.ed.gov.

ASU's federal school code is 001081.

- Jan. 1: First day the FAFSA can be filed.
- March 1: ASU's priority filing date.
