

Arizona State University is committed to protecting the privilege of performing research and promoting, fostering and supporting research activities within the university community.

The Office of Research Integrity and Assurance was established as a resource for investigators and the university as a whole to achieve and maintain ethical principles and compliance with federal, state, and university regulations governing research. The office acts as a liaison between the Associate Vice President for the Knowledge Enterprise Development (the Institutional Official designated with oversight of compliance) and the various committees required to monitor and support research activities.

Through key committees, related programs and activities, the Office of Research Integrity and Assurance coordinates the development of, implements and oversees university policies related to research compliance and provides support for the responsible conduct of research for the following areas:

- Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee
- Institutional Biosafety Committee
- Institutional Review Board
- Responsible Conduct in Research
- Objectivity in Research
- Security and Export Controls
- Scientific Diving

If you have any complaints or concerns about conduct in a compliance area please contact our office by mail, phone, or email to research.integrity@asu.edu All complaints or concerns are kept confidential and reported anonymously. For additional information please see ASU Ethics and Compliance Hotline or call 877 SUN DEVL (877-786-3385).
