Transfer Admission Guarantee (TAG) and Maricopa to ASU Pathways Program (MAPP) Arizona State University has established special transfer partnerships with Arizona community colleges to facilitate the transition to ASU. Transfer Admission Guarantee (TAG) programs provide a prescribed set of course work that meet the requirements for an associate degree and AGEC (Arizona General Education Curriculum), as well as, lower-division course requirements for a specific ASU major. Maricopa Community College District (MCCD) students participate in the Maricopa to ASU Pathways Program (MAPP), a TAG designed specifically for students attending one of the MCCD community colleges.

Special Requirements: 2.0 GPA in coursework used to satisfy MAPP requirements. All courses must be completed with a grade of $C$ or greater.

Special Requirements

The MAPP for the BA in Design Studies is provided as a transfer pathway for students wishing to complete their BA in Design Studies at Arizona State Unvieresity. Some students wish to pursue a Bachelor of Science in Design, and this is possible, but the five professional design degrees (Bachelor of Science in Design in Architectural Studies, Graphic Design, Industrial Design, Interior Design, Landscape Architecture) require 8 semesters (4 years) of sequential studio coursework at Arizona State University. For this reason we suggest students at Maricopa Community Colleges complete the BA Design Studies MAPP and then consider pursuing the 3+ graduate programs in Architecture, Industrial Design, Interior Architecture, Landscape Architecture and Visual Communication Design offered through The Design School. These programs are studio Master's These programs are studio Master's Degree programs that students with a Bachelor's Degree in any discipline can apply for. The options for these programs can be seen on The Design School's graduate degrees page
https://design.asu.edu/degree-programs/gradua Students can apply for the $3+$ programs with either a BA in Design Studies or a BS in Environmental Design.

Special Requirements

Completion of the MAPP and all special requirements satisfies the requirements for MCCCD Associate in Business (ABUS-GR) and AGEC-B, meets major map requirements at ASU, and guarantees admission to the university. This degree program requires meeting W. P. Carey Bachelor of Science requirements.

Admission Requirements:
In addition to a minimum 3.00 cumulative transfer GPA, students must meet one of the following for admission to the W. P. Carey Bachelor of Science degree program: SAT (math and critical reading sections only) score of 1160 or higher, OR an ACT composite score of 25 or higher, OR a high school class ranking in the top 8 percent, OR an overall high school GPA of 3.60 in ASU competency courses $(A=4.00)$.
*Because Arizona State University calculates GPAs differently than the Maricopa Community College District, admission to the BA program is certified upon the calculation of the 3.0
cumulative transfer GPA by ASU
Undergraduate Admissions. A cumulative transfer GPA includes all college coursework completed at regionally accredited institutions of higher education. Students are responsible for confirming all transfer transcripts are on file with ASU. For more information:

Only 64 credits are transferrable to ASU Please refer to ASU Degree Search for information regarding readmissions requirements.

Completion of the Arizona Western-ASU RN-BSN Pathway Program and the special requirements satisfies the requirements for Arizona Western College Associate of Applied Science degree, satisfies lower division RN to BSN major requirements, and upon receipt of all application materials, guarantees admission to the ASU RN to BSN program.

Special Requirements:
A grade of " C " or better in each course and a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA in the following courses is required for guaranteed admission: ENG 101, ENG 102, BIO 201, BIO 202, BIO 205, CHM 130 or 151 with lab and PSY 101. In addition, students must complete the courses that meet the listed general studies requirements with a grade of "C" or better. These courses are not included in the 2.5 cumulative GPA computation. All remaining courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or better.

Upon Transfer to ASU: Students must have a current RN license in good standing before taking the courses in the RN-BSN program (TWC/NUR). While waiting for NCLEXRN test results, students may opt to take Upper Division/ General Studies courses, if needed.

All additional ASU General Studies requirements can be completed while enrolled in the RN-BSN program. All other requirements are selected by the student and must be completed prior to graduation from ASU.

While the pathway requirements total 77-79 credits, there are only 75 maximum transferable credit hours; the excess hours will not transfer. ASU will accept up to 90 transfer credit hours for traditional course work you have successfully completed at regionally accredited institutions of higher education. The applicability of the specific course toward a degree depends on the requirements of the department, division, college or school in which you are enrolled at ASU. Students are responsible for working with their advisor to confirm all transfer transcripts are on file with ASU. For more information:
https://transfer.asu.edu/credits
A Concurrent Enrollment Program (CEP) is also available to Arizona Western College students. The Concurrent Enrollment Program (CEP) is designed for qualified nursing students who are interested in earning their Bachelor of Science in nursing while simultaneously pursuing their AAS in nursing. Selected students will be enrolled at Arizona Western College and Arizona State University concurrently. RN to BSN courses taken at ASU will be delivered in an online format. Students should speak with their advisor at Arizona Western College for more information on how to select the CEP option.

This degree program requires meeting W. P. Carey Bachelor of Science requirements.

Admission Requirements:
In addition to a minimum 3.00 cumulative transfer GPA, students must meet one of the following for admission to the W. P. Carey Bachelor of Science degree program: SAT (math and critical reading sections only) score of 1160 or higher, OR an ACT composite score of 25 or higher, OR a high school class ranking in the top 8 percent, OR an overall high school GPA of 3.60 in ASU competency courses ( $A=4.00$ ).
*Because Arizona State University calculates GPAs differently than Centra Arizona College, admission to the BA program is certified upon the calculation of the 3.0 cumulative transfer GPA by ASU Undergraduate Admissions. A cumulative transfer GPA includes all college coursework completed at regionally accredited institutions of higher education. Students are responsible for confirming all transfer transcripts are on file with ASU. For more information:

Completion of the TAG and all special requirements satisfies the requirements for Eastern Arizona College Associate in Business degree and AGEC-B, meets major map requirements at ASU, and guarantees admission to the Business Bachelors degree program. Special Requirements: In addition to university requirements, the W. P. Carey School of Business has the following special requirements: All courses must be completed with a grade of " C " or better. Students who complete the TAG with a 3.0 cumulative transfer GPA* and submit one of the following: an SAT (math and critical reading sections only) score of 1160 or higher, OR an ACT composite score of 25 or higher, OR a high school class ranking in the top 8 percent, OR an overall high school GPA of 3.60 in ASU competency courses \((A=4.00)\) are guaranteed admission to the W. P. Carey School of Business Bachelors degree program, subject to capacity availability. Students may be assigned to a specific campus. *Because Arizona State University computes GPAs differently than Eastern Arizona College, admission to the B.S. program can only be certified after ASU calculates and certifies the GPA. Only 64 credits are transferrable to ASU.

\section*{Personalized Tools and Services for All Students}

\section*{Degree Search}

Students want to find a degree and major that meets their interests, goals and preferred location. Degree Search [1] helps students find a major by searching on the name of a major, college, area of interest, campus and/or keyword. It also allows side-by-side degree/major comparison.

Major Maps
All students can view a major map for each major through Degree Search [1] or My ASU [2]. A major map is an eight-semester, optimal course plan that clearly outlines a recommended sequence of courses that enables students to graduate in four years. Critical requirements, GPA requirements and milestones that occur within the first four semesters are highlighted on the major map. ASU's automated tracking system (eAdvisor \({ }^{\text {TM }}\) ) charts first-time, full-time freshmen students' progress on critical requirements, GPA requirements and milestones during their first four semesters.

\section*{Placement Testing}

ASU is focused on helping students succeed in their academic goal: to earn their degree. One of the first critical steps to academic success is determining if each incoming student has the skill preparation necessary, particularly in math and English, to proceed with their degree program.
The purpose of placement testing is to ensure students are placed in the classes appropriate for their level of preparation and to make sure they get the skills they need to succeed from the beginning. If students begin classes they aren't prepared for, they will have difficulty with the new material and won't solidify their basic skills. If they are advanced in their skills, they need to be appropriately challenged.
Find out more about first-year math [3] and English [4] placement testing.
Data has shown that if students get on the right course towards graduation during their first four semesters, they are more likely to stay at ASU and earn their degree. Because of this, we have created an eAdvisor initiative that identifies our full-time freshmen, provides an optimal course plan and tracks their progress during the first four semesters. The following tools are available exclusively to eAdvisor students.

\section*{Progress Reports}

All students can track their progress through an online graduation audit and unmet requirement audit available on My ASU [2]. Students can run an unmet degree audit that lists only the requirements they have not yet taken and need to complete in order to graduate. They can also view a complete list of all their degree requirements on a graduation audit, those they have completed as well as those they still need to complete. eAdvisor students have additional tools that allow them to track their progress toward completing critical requirements (required courses, grades or GPAs and milestones required to stay on track) on their major map, also on My ASU [2].

\section*{Academic Status Reports}

Early intervention is key to student success when a student is struggling in a course. ASU students are alerted during the fifth and tenth weeks of the semester if they are in danger of receiving a \(\mathrm{D}, \mathrm{E}\) or Unsatisfactory grade in a class. Through My ASU [2], students receive suggested follow-up items and information about academic resources so they can get the help they need before it is too late. Some students need encouragement to commit more time to their studies, to locate tutoring services or to speak with the instructor about the course work and performance expectations. Even if a student did not receive a status report for a class, it is still a good idea to check with the instructor to see how they are doing in the class.

\section*{Online Access to Advising Committees}

Each student's academic advising committee will help them set personal academic goals, understand policies and create strategies for staying on track towards graduation. The committee is listed on the student's My ASU [2] page. There is also information about how advising services work in the student's department and how to get answers to advising questions or make an appointment with an advisor. The ASU Academic Advising Directory [5] provides links to all the advising offices at ASU.

\section*{Holds and Tasks}

The Holds and Tasks section of each student's My ASU Web page is dedicated to informing the student about academic holds and tasks they need to accomplish. An academic hold is placed on a student's record if the student is placed on academic probation or is off track, for instance. It restricts the student from registering for new classes and requires them to meet with their academic advisor. A task item will show up on My ASU when there is a task the student must complete, such as meeting a scholarship application deadline or checking their academic status report.

\section*{Unique Tools for eAdvisor \({ }^{\text {TM }}\) Students}

Data has shown that if students get on the right course towards graduation during their first four semesters, they are more likely to stay at ASU and earn their degree. Because of this, we have created an eAdvisor initiative that identifies our full-time freshmen, provides an optimal course plan and tracks their progress during the first four semesters. The following tools are available exclusively to eAdvisor students.

\section*{eAdvisor Status and Progress Reports}

In addition to traditional progress reports, eAdvisor students can run a critical requirement audit and view their tracking status at any time during the semester. A student record may change multiple times during the semester because of dropped courses, transferred credit, completed milestones or changed majors. The system accounts for the changes to student records and updates the eAdvisor status, critical requirement audits and advising holds nightly.

\section*{E-mails from eAdvisor} eAdvisor students receive e-mails regarding their progress. E-mails are sent to asu.edu e-mail addresses, so it is important that students check their ASU e-mail daily.

\section*{eAdvisor Holds and Tasks} eAdvisor will place important notes and reminders in these two sections of eAdvisor students' My ASU [2] page. If a student becomes off track, an advising hold will be placed on their record and while they may drop and withdraw from a course, they will not be able to add courses to the current semester. A student with off-track status will not be able to register for future fall and spring semesters until they have contacted their advisor and discussed strategies for getting back on track. Their advisor will then remove the hold.

\section*{Transcripts}

Official and unofficial ASU academic transcripts are available through University Registrar Services.
Sending your transcripts to ASU? Contact Admissions [1] for mailing address information.

\section*{Official Transcripts}

An official transcript is a copy of the student's permanent academic record issued by the University Registrar. It displays all courses taken for credit at ASU and includes all grades received. Unlike unofficial transcripts, it is signed and dated by the registrar and displays the ASU seal. Official transcripts are not issued for students with outstanding financial obligations to the university.

For students that attended the Thunderbird School of Global Management prior to December 31, 2014, information on ordering official transcripts can be found here [2].

ASU cannot send official transcripts by email or fax.
University Registrar Services has partnered with Parchment, a digital credentials service, to manage the ordering, processing, and secure electronic delivery of your official ASU transcripts.

All students are encouraged to go online to place their transcript order. This is the easiest and most efficient way to place an order for either a traditional paper transcript or electronic transcript delivery.

\section*{Electronic Delivery of Official Transcripts}

Official electronic transcripts may only be ordered using Parchment's online request system. Students choosing this option will identify their recipients by selecting them from a list within the ordering system or by providing the email address of their intended recipients.

To expedite and ensure accurate delivery, students should:
- Make sure the transcript recipient will accept the electronic transcripts, so they can avoid paying to send a replacement copy.
- Double check that the email address they provided for an institution or individual is correct, so they can avoid paying again to send a replacement electronic or paper copy.
- Provide their email addresses for notification purposes (the student's email address assists with tracking and confirming delivery by notifying the student when the transcript is sent and when it is received by the selected institution or individual).
- Instruct recipients to allow emails from Parchment (noreplyint@parchment.com [3]) to avoid potential problems with spam filters.

Orders are generally processed immediately, unless you request a hold for degree or grades.
The transcript is not delivered by email; the recipient's email address is used for notification and reminder messages regarding delivery of the student's transcript to a secure site where it can be accessed.
