Our Mission

The Committee for Campus Inclusion (CCI), an advisory group to the provost, promotes a positive, harmonious campus environment that celebrates individual and group diversity, promotes individualism, provides information to the campus community, and resolves issues in such a manner as to respect all persons and their dignity.

Activities of the CCI

Committee for Campus Inclusion (CCI) activities include:

- education
- monitoring, information gathering and reporting
- referrals and response to harassment

Arizona State University is committed to diversity. We have a number of organizations and agencies focused on diversity issues. We are working diligently to make the goals and objectives of diversity, which are articulated in many of our documents, a felt reality. We have great hopes for a positive future and are committed to continuing such ideals as:

- student-centeredness,
- shared governance,
- good lines of communication,
- open processes,
- fair treatment of all, and perhaps most importantly:
- valuing the contribution of all members of our community.

Joining CCI

Faculty and staff are appointed by the provost for three-year terms. Meetings are held monthly to discuss what's happening on campus, to plan programs and/or to review sponsored project.

Office of the University Provost

Arizona State University is a top ranked research university in the greater Phoenix metropolitan area.
