

The School of Transborder Studies

We strive to stimulate academic discovery that solves critical problems at the intersection of borders and society. Explore our degree programs to learn more.

Undergraduate Programs

Graduate Programs

Do you want to learn about the United States/Mexico borderlands and the people who live there?

The Simon Burrow Map Collection at STS

Click here to learn more about the historic map collection at the School of Transborder Studies.

Do you want to know more about these people's history, literature, politics, culture, and social practices? Then you are in the right place!

Our BA degree in Transborder Chicana/o and Latino/a Studies prepares you for a career as a teacher, lawyer, social worker, or for positions in government or social service agencies. Our students have also gone on to attend prestigious graduate and professional schools in the country such as Stanford, Harvard, and Columbia.

Our mission is to inspire and empower our students by providing an innovative learning experience that prepares them to be agents of change in a challenging environment.

< Previous

Next >

All artwork displayed on our website is from Artist Andrea Perusquía Mendoza, an Arizona State University Alumnus.

ASU School of Transborder Studies
Arizona State University

An academic unit of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Academics

Advising

Graduate Degrees

Undergraduate Degrees

Connect

Contact Us

Impact

Invest

Research

People

Faculty & Staff

ASU is #1 in the U.S. for Innovation

