

University Service-Learning

ASU courses pair meaningful service at Community Partner sites with relevant academic coursework and service-learning resources for K-12 teachers and ASU faculty.

LEARN MORE

America Reads

Partners with community organizations and schools, employing eligible ASU students as academic tutors for children from low-income neighborhoods

LEARN MORE

AmeriCorps

A national program that increases awareness of community issues and rewards participants with Education Awards to apply towards college costs.

LEARN MORE

Students Making an Impact

Pierre Rivera
Stand Up for Kids

Mona Dixon
Boys & Girls Clubs of the East Valley

America Reads Tutors
Give Thanks by Giving Back

What is service-learning?

Service-learning is a teaching methodology that enables students to apply knowledge and skills learned in the classroom to meaningful service to the community.

LEARN MORE

During 2015-2016

1,425

students participated in Community Engagement Programs

205,180

service hours were provided by students to the community.

LOCATION: 106 Farmer (ED), Tempe campus
 ADDRESS: Community Engagement Programs, PO Box 875511, Tempe, AZ 85287-5511
 CONNECT: Contact Facebook Email Listservs
 PHONE: Voice: (480) 727-6382 Fax: (480) 727-7065

TEACHERS COLLEGE HOMEPAGE >

Invest in Service Learning